REPORT ARAB CEASE FIRE REJECTION

1 DEAD, 7 HURT IN FIRE TRUCK, BUS COLLISION

Fireman Meets Death in Columbus; Truck Crashes Into Store.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 26—A fireman was killed and at least seven persons were injured today when a fire truck collided with a city bus.

Louis Martin, 68, one of three firemen on a pump truck answering an alarm, was the man killed. The truck was overturned.

John Tipton, driver of the bus, was freed from the wreckage by emergency squadmen. He was taken to St. Francis hospital in critical condition.

Two bystanders, Herbert Eichhorn and Miss Charlotte Meyers, were struck by the fire truck as it crashed into a nearby store.

Three Passengers Injured

Three bus passengers were slightly injured. They are Mary Baker, Miss Betty Grubble and Miss Brow.

Police said the bus apparently struck the side of the fire truck, turning it over into the front of the store.

The bus did not immediately stop, but again smashed into the overturned truck.

Martin was riding on top of the truck and was thrown by the impact.

As the truck overturned, hose spilled into the store, pinning Eichhorn to the ground. He was rescued by customers. His injuries were not serious.

Scene of Collision

The collision of the Frebis avenue motor bus and the fire truck occurred at the intersection of Thurman avenue and Jaeger street.

The fire truck rolled over on its side and crashed into the front of a grocery store operated by Eichhorn. He was in front of the store, arranging a display of strawberries. The impact knocked off his shoes.

The fire alarm which promoted the truck's run was caused by an overheated motor in a car which was not damaged.

Programs Arranged for Harding Commencement Week Events

Albert C. May, principal of Harding High school, today announced the program for the seventy-sixth commencement of the school which will take place in the Chautauqua pavilion in Garfield park at 8 p. m. Thursday, June 3.

The graduation address will be given by Dr. Bernard Clausen of Cleveland. His subject will be the "Intelligent Failure."

The graduation program will begin with the processional, "Pomp and Circumstance," Elgar, played by the high school orchestra. The processional will be followed by the National Anthem.

The invocation will be given by Rev. J. B. Holloway, pastor of Trinity Baptist church.

The orchestra with Homer Huffman directing, will play "Angelus" from "Scenes Picturesque" by Massenot and "Dance of the Hours" from "La Giaconda" by Ponchielli.

The school a cappella choir, directed by L. G. Jones, will sing "All the Things You Are" Kern-Ringwald; "Comin' Through the Rye" arranged by Simeone; and "My God and I" by Sergei.

Lester L. Dickey, superintendent of schools, will introduce Dr. Clausen who will give the graduation address.

After the graduation address Mr. May will present the class. E. Paul Bachman, president of the board of education, will present the diplomas.

The graduates will sing the class song, the words of which were written by Joyce Snyder, a member of the class.

The benediction will be given by Rev. R. A. Maugans, pastor of The Memorial Baptist church.

Recessional March

The recessional, a march from the "Queen of Sheba" by Gounod, played by the orchestra will bring the ceremonies to a close.

Graduation day will be preceded by the annual baccalaureate service at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, May 30, in the Chautauqua pavilion at Garfield park with Rev. D. H. Hochstettler, pastor of First Evangelical United Brethren church delivering the baccalaureate sermon.

The baccalaureate service will be preceded by a recorded musical program presented by D. A. Brown.

The service will start with the processional, "Pomp and Circumstance," by Elgar, played by the high school orchestra. The invocation will be given by Rev. Frederick W. Leech, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Three anthems will be sung by the a cappella choir. The anthem will be "We Thank Thee, Lord," Bortniansky-Tkach; "Dark Water", Burleigh; and "Were You There", James.

The scripture reading from Philippians 3:7-17 will be given by Dr. Henry Schaeffer, pastor of St. Pauls Lutheran church.

Prayer will be offered by Rev. R. W. Faulkner, pastor of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church, and the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" will be sung by the audience.

Rev. Hochstettler will speak on the subject, "Not Yet Perfect", and his text Philippians 3:14. The benediction will be given by Rev. E. H. Wierth, pastor of First Evangelical and Reformed church. The response "Lord Bless You and Keep You", Luikin, will be sung by the a cappella choir.

The recessional march from "Queen of Sheba," Gounod played by the orchestra will bring the baccalaureate service to a close.

The annual "Class Day" program will be held Wednesday, June 2, at 4:30 p. m. at Harding stadium, weather permitting. In case of rain it will be held in Chautauqua pavilion, and will feature music of the Harding High band.

The processional, "March of the Brave" Zamicnik, by the band will open the program. The flag raising ceremony and singing of the class song, by the class of 1948, will follow.

James Coss, president of the class will give the class address, while Roger Pendleton, junior class president will give the response.

A medley of Cole Porter's songs will be played by the band followed by the reading of the class history by Polly Biggert.

The Sousa march, "Fairest of the Fair" by the band will precede the reading of the class prophecy by Claire Koeppen. The band will play "Stardust," Carmichael, after which the class song, will be sung by the graduating class.

The recessional, "Coronation March" from "The Prophet," by Myerbeer, will bring the class day program to a close.

U. S. Power Sale Plan Called Russian Style In House Fund Report

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26—One phase of the government's public power program smacks of Russian tactics, the house appropriations committee charged today.

It took specific issue with the sale of cut-rate Bonneville power to a public utility district which took over a private company through condemnation action without putting the issue to a popular vote.

Such a "Soviet power policy" must stop, the committee declared.

Its comment was contained in a report sending to the house floor a $375,677,591 interior department appropriation bill, cut 18 per cent below President Truman's estimates.

The committee made no reference to testimony by Secretary Krug that the nation has "virtually nothing" in its stockpile of strategic and critical materials needed for military use.

Reject Job Ouster Proposal

Neither did it accept the recommendation of Chairman Harness (R-Ind) of an expenditures subcommittee that Michael Straus and Richard L. Boke be relieved of their jobs as reclamation bureau executives. Harkness had complained that the pair spent too much time on departmental propaganda work and were not qualified.

The committee centered most of its fire on the issue of public versus private utility operation in discussing the Bonneville power administration—an interior department agency in the Pacific northwest.

Present purchasers of power for resale, the committee said, "should be given preference in the renewal of contracts in order that they may continue to supply the needs of their customers."

The cut of $84,293,244 from the President's budget estimate of $459,970,835 for the department was one of the sharpest ordered this year for any agency. Part of the cut, however, was offset by approval of $29,944,290 in contract authority, for which appropriations will be made later.

The $375,677,591 cash in the bill is $112,876,532 more than the department was given for the present fiscal year ending June 30. Extra funds for reclamation projects, for the bureau of mines, for railroad and highway improvement in Alaska, and for the national park service accounted for most of the increase, although all these projects had been budgeted for more.

Would Fight Mine Fires

A quarter million dollars was recommended by the committee today to fight coal mine fires.

Rep. Fenton (R-Pa) and spokesmen for the U. S. bureau of mines, told the committee at hearings on interior department funds that the fires are threatening lives and property and are burning up one of the nation's valuable resources.

The fire fighting would be conducted by technicians of the bureau of mines. It is the first time an appropriation has been recommended for such a purpose, Fenton said.

The fires, some of which have been burning for decades, are in abandoned workings. Such a fire, the committee was told, might get started by a picnicker's fire igniting an outcropping of coal.

The bureau was instructed to conduct its work on fires that are endangering communities, including New Straitsville, O.

Other Funds Listed

An appropriation of $9,226,979 for the fish and wildlife service in the year starting July 1 was recommended. The figure is $2,360,221 below the budget bureau's estimate and $2,644,169 above the current year's appropriation.

The committee recommended $7,250,00 for work on synthetic liquid fuels during the year starting July 1. This is $2,500,000 less than asked by the budget bureau.

The committee said it was recommending the cut because it believed there would be a carry-over of funds from this year's appropriation which would enable the program to go ahead without interruption.

OFFERS POURING IN FOR PATROL STATION

13 Letters and Many Phone Calls Received.

Chances for Marion to keep its state highway patrol sub-station appeared brighter today.

Within a few hours after a story appeared in The Star last night, stating the station might be closed because of lack of quarters, 13 written offers of space were received and numerous others were made by telephone.

Corporal Tom Morgan, in charge here, said the proposals would be turned over to Lt. A. L. Bouton of Columbus who will come to Marion Friday morning to check on the offers. The patrol must move soon from its present quarters on Delaware avenue because the property is involved in the settlement of an estate.

Lt. Bouton, patrol housing chief, expressed both delight and amazement at the response to his appeal.

In a telephone communication from Columbus this morning Lt. Bouton said, "Please express my thanks, and the thanks of the patrol, to the people of Marion for their offers of housing.

Sgt. E. H. Davey from District A headquarters in Findlay, will assist him in selecting new quarters.

Repeated attempts by patrol authorities to find new quarters here proved fruitless until last night's appeal in The Star.

RAIL CONTROL PLAN OPPOSED

Demand of Union Heads for Nationalization of Roads Gets Frown.

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, May 26—Government officials gave a cold shoulder today to demands by 21 railway unions for nationalization of American railroads.

But they revealed that the White House is trying again to initiate settlement of the labor dispute which led to government seizure of the railroads two weeks ago in an emergency move to prevent a nationwide strike.

One high official, who declined to be named publicly, said presidential labor adviser John R. Steelman "is in touch with both parties" in an effort to bring about a settlement.

He declined to say whether the government, as emergency operator of the railroads, planned to negotiate with the unions itself or propose some new peace formula to the two parties.

Demand Result of Collapse

The demand for nationalization of the railroads came unexpectedly last night from presidents of 21 of 22 major rail labor unions representing 1,250,000 workers. It was a result of the collapse in negotiations between the railroads industry and three key unions representing engineers, firemen and switchmen.

The union leaders said the government had placed itself in the position of a "strike breaker" by taking technical possession of the railroads and obtaining a court order forcing the three unions to cancel the strike they had set for May 11.

"We demand," they said in a resolution," that the government . . . take control of the revenues of the railroads as it already has taken control of the employes of the railroads . . . and proceed to bargain upon wages and warking conditions."

They also charged that the carriers had been unable to "maintain satisfactory labor relations" or to meet the public need for "efficient, prompt and full service."

Therefore, they said, the government should "begin preparations for the transfer of railroad ownership from private interests to the United States of America."

Involves "Basic Departure"

Government officials, however, said that nationalization would involve a basic departure in the American system and would hardly be considered seriously by the administration—and certainly not by congress—as the solution to the present labor dispute.

William T. Faricy of the Association of American Railroads charged that the unions, in proposing nationalization, were trying to divert attention from the fact the three unions have refused to accept settlement terms recommended by a preisdential fact-finding board.

He said the railroads still are prepared to give them the 15½ cents a hour wage boost and changes in working rules recommended by the board. The three unions reportedly will accept the 15½ cents pay boost provided the railroads grant some additional rules changes.

NEW PLANT FOR NEWARK

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, May 26—F. J. Kress Box Co. will erect a $1,000,000 plant at Newark, O., president J. B. LeClare announced here yesterday. He said construction of a one-story building would start early in June. The plant is expected to be in operation by early 1949.

GM AND UAW SETTLE, BEAT THE STRIKE DEADLINE. Beating the May 28 strike deadline with a settlement, General Motors and CIO-United Auto Workers' officials sign an agreement in Detroit giving GM's 225,000 UAW members an 11-cent hourly boost geared to cost of living, and assuring a 3-cent raise May 29, 1949, the first such agreement in the industry. 7-Acre Playground Started on Silver St.

Marion's northwest residential area is well on the way toward getting a complete public playground and recreation center for its young people.

Through the altruism of Arthur J. Berry of 355 Cherry street, the cooperation of the city and the Huber Manufacturing Co. and the industry of officers and members of Buckeye Aerie 337, Fraternal Order of Eagles, people of the northwest section have been enjoying just such a playground on a temporary and informal basis for the past seven weeks.

Mr. Berry, former telephone company executive and National City bank executive, owns a large level seven-acre plot of ground at the corner of Silver street and Avondale avenue.

Ball Grounds Shaped Up

Seven weeks ago he gave the Eagles permission to prepare and use the plot as a practice ground for their softball team. Through the courtesy of the city and the Huber company the plot was mowed and scraped and a softball diamond made.

Residents of the neighborhood evinced a strong interest in the site as a recreation ground. The Eagles erected a backstop for the ball diamond and installed sand boxes and swings for children.

Gene Williams, secretary of the Eagles in Marion, was approached by many neighborhood residents wishing to contribute financially to a fund for purchase and equipment of the ground for a playground.

Grand Aerie Interested

After consulting with members and officers of the Eagles Williams secured permission to contact the Grand Aerie of the Eagles in Kansas City to secure authorization for purchase of the property if the sale of the grounds could be arranged with Mr. Berry. Williams received a long distance call from the Grand Aerie in Kansas City Tuesday morning requesting more information on the proposed purchase.

What action Eagle authorities will take in the matter is unknown but in the meantime Mr. Berry is permitting the Eagles and people of the neighborhood to enjoy the use of his property, rent free, as his contribution to good neighborliness.

First Circus In Marion Today

Doors Open at 7 for Tonight's Show; Goes to Mansfield from Here.

The Cole Bros. circus, the first to show in Marion this year, arrived in town about 9 a. m for two shows here today. The long circus train arrived on the Pennsylvania railroad, coming here from Lima, and was unloaded at the crossing on the Garden City pike, making its way to Drake's show grounds by way of Fairground street.

The afternoon show was to get under way at 2:15, while the performance tonight is scheduled to begin at 8. Doors will open at 7 o'clock.

Following the two performances here today, the circus will move on to Mansfield for shows tomorrow, going out by way of the Erie railroad. The circus is to reload following the show tonight at the Bennett street Erie crossing.

The opening number billed for the shows is entitled "Pence de Leon and the Fountain of Youth" which features a score of girls in brightly colored costumes. This will be followed by such performers as the Cristiana Family, famous as bare-back riders, Hubert Castle, a wire artist, Paul and Ruth Nelson, trainers and riders of pedigreed horses, La Louise of the high trapeze, and the Flying Thrillers, who close the show with a dare-devil flying return act. Also, the proverbial clowns will be on hand.

Durbin Asks Truman To Speak in Crestline

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, May 26—Andrew T. Durbin, Kenton, O., Democratic nominee for congress from the Eighth district, visited President Truman today and asked him to speak at Crestline on his forthcoming western tour.

Durbin told the President he was going to be elected overwhelmingly in November. He is opposing Rep. Frederick Smith (R) of Marion.

Durbin said Mr. Truman could not give him an immediate reply on what Ohio stops would be made.

MANSFIELD MAN SENTENCED

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 26—Federal Judge Paul Jones sentenced James Lawrence Ruggles, 29, of Mansfield, O., to 24 months in prison today on a charge of forging a government check for $714.

TASS GIRL'S FATHER TO KEEP U.S. JOB

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26—John C. Virden, who offered to quit a high government post after disclosure that his 22-year-old daughter is working for Tass, a Russian news agency, today withdrew his resignation.

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer announced Virden's action in a statement saying he would continue "to carry on the work of the (commerce department's) office of industry cooperation as he has in the past."

Virden, a 51-year-old Republican industrialist from Cleveland, is director of the OIC which works out voluntary agreements by industry to direct steel and other scarce material to essential uses.

Miss Virden, apparently in good humor, laughingly said "no statement' when asked at the Tass office her father's action withdrawing his resignation.

A graduate of two fashionable eastern schools for women, she has maintained silence since Sawyer made public Crawford's request about her father.

Rep. Crawford (R-Mich) told reporters "no comment." He had just denied that he planned to back down on his demand for removal of the OIC chief.

Rep. Bender (R-Ohio) was among those who came to Virden's defense in the matter.

Injured were Luther Bussell, 24, William Estes, 23, and Mrs. Jonas Manson of Troy.

Jones, Bussell and Estes were riding in the car. Mrs. Manson was a passenger in the truck with her husband.

PRICE DROP IN FOOD UNLIKELY

Agriculture Dept. Review Lists Factors Preventing Major Cost Reductions.

By International News Service

WASHINGTON, May 26—Housewives were given little hope today that their food dollars will stretch any further in the remaining months of 1948 than in the current period of bloated prices.

The Agriculture department, in a review of the national food situation, said that the general business boom and fat consumer pocketbooks are likely to prevent any major drop in food costs in the immediate future. The department declared:

"Among the influences that will tend to maintain economic activity in this country are the recent federal income tax reduction which may add as much as five billion dollars to the spendable income of consumers this year.

The department predicted that other factors which will help to support prices are the six billion dollar authorizations for foreign aid and prospects for greater expenditures for national defense. The department added:

"With a continued high level of economic activity in prospect, no sharp decline in retail food prices is likely in 1948. Some seasonal declines in flush production periods are to be expected."

For 1948 as a whole, the report forecast that food consumption per person will be slightly lower than last year but still about 12 per cent above the pre-war average.

Items seen less frequently on dinner tables are expected to include most dairy products, poultry and meat. The department thinks egg consumption may equal the near record of 380 per person reached last year.

The report saw the usual seasonal drop in meat supplies during the summer and early fall as a possible spur to already staggering meat prices.

The department pointed out that retail milk prices in 25 major cities already are about 10 per cent higher than a year earlier. Although a seasonal production increase is at hand, it expects the trend to continue.

Sharp Eyes Will Win Prizes In Store Contest

A sharp eye and a little shoe leather are all contenders will need tomorrow night in the scrambled merchandise derby being sponsored by 40 Marion stores offering a fat $200 in prizes to lucky winners.

The contest opens at 7:30 p. m. when merchants will have placed among the items in their display windows one that they obviously do not offer as regular stock in trade. Object is to identify the misplaced article found at each of the stores and turn the list in at the Marion Chamber of Commerce office as quickly as possible. Articles should be listed on entry blanks contained in the Marion Star tonight or on blanks obtained at the Chamber office.

Contest will run until 10 p. m. First entry received with the least number of errors will get the first prize. Awards comprise $5 gift certificates good in any of the participating stores. Contest judges will be members of the Marion chapter of the National Secretaries association.

UNCONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE IS TURNED DOWN

Terms Stipulated by Arabs Apparently Doom UN Truce Appeal.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

The United Nations' fifth effort to stop the fighting in Palestine collapsed today.

Arabs said they could accept a cease fire order only if the Jewish army Haganah receives no more arms, if recognition of Israel is abandoned and if Jewish immigration is limited.

A spokesman for the new Jewish state promptly said the conditions could not be accepted.

* * *

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, May 26—The Arab delegations here were told by their governments today not to accept the United Nations Palestine cease-fire order unconditionally.

They laid down three conditions which a spokesman for Israel said could not be accepted by the Jewish state.

This apparently doomed the security council's fifth truce appeal.

The Arabs received instructions from their governments just before the noon deadline the council set Monday for acceptance or rejection.

The Arab conditions were reported to be:

►Stop arming Haganah, the Jewish army.

►Abandon recognition of the Jewish state.

►Limitation of Jewish immigration.

The council adjourned at 11:53 a. m.—just seven minutes before the deadline—without asking the Arabs to read out their replies. The council meets again at 2 p. m.

Meanwhile a big power spokesman said a demand may be made for a worldwide diplomatic break with the Arabs.

Call It Play for Time

The Jews insisted that the two-day extension of the UN cease fire deadline was obtained by the Arabs to afford Arabs additional time for an Arab offensive, particularly in Jerusalem. Israel reconsidered its original acceptance of the cease fire because of the extension.

Fighting went on in Jerusalem and on other fronts in Palestine. The Holy City was reported by Jews to have been bombed for the first time in its history. Haganah said high flying planes dropped high explosives. Further details were lacking.

Probable Effect in U. S.

Arab rejection of the truce seemed likely to conceal the U. S. stand on Palestine favoring the new Jewish state. The United States was expected to urge again at Lake Success that the United Nations use economic sanctions and force if needed to stop the shooting. It also would provide a peg for President Truman to lift the arms embargo to the middle east or to arrange a loan of around $100,000,000 to Israel. President Chaim Weizmann of Israel said he received hope for both from Mr. Truman yesterday.

The British foreign office appeared perturbed by the prospect of a possible U. S. loan to Israel, saying this might jeopardize Arab acceptance of the cease fire request.

King Abdullah's Trans-Jordan legion said it killed 600 Jews in a 24-hour battle for Latrun, key point on the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem supply road, and won control of the town. Latrun is 20 miles southeast of Tel Aviv and a point by which convoys to the beleaguered Jews in Jerusalem must pass.

Egypt's army said its forces had entered Iraq Suweidan, 27 miles south of Tel Aviv. It is a control point for communications between Jewish settlements in North and South Palestine.

The situation in Jerusalem itself was critical for the Jews. The Arab Legion, Egyptian and volunteer forces were pressing down on Jews cornered in a small section of the old Walled City.

The Arabs dynamited four more buildings, probably burying many Jews. At least 15 Jews were killed during the night trying to reach their isolated comrades in the walled city trap.

Russia agreed to exchange diplomats with Israel.

Numerous German army veterans in the U. S. zone of Germany were reported trying to enlist in Jewish fighting forces in Palestine, but were turned down.

The American embassy in Cairo delivered a protest to Egypt against its warning to all ships approaching Palestine. Egypt and Syria in effect had declared a blockade, which the U. S. rejected.

MISPLACED MERCHANDISE

CONTEST

TOMORROW THURS., NIGHT ONLY

$200.00 . . . IN MERCHANDISE PRIZES

Provided by the Marion Retail Merchants

Find the "Misplaced Merchandise" In Marion Stores Summer Windows

Merchants in Marion will give valuable merchandise prizes to have you inspect their windows tomorrow night. All you have to do is select the "Misplaced Merchandise" in the windows of the stores listed in the entry blank at the right of this page. For instance, if you find a shoe in a jeweler's window you obviously have located one of the misplaced items, because jewelers do not sell shoes. Be prepared to start hunting these misplaced items at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening. You'll find it great fun! Time counts—the judges have ruled that in case of ties, the first entry blank with the least number of errors submitted to the Marion Chamber of Commerce office, 116 N. State Street wins—so make up your list and hand it in early.

40 PRIZES TO BE AWARDED

To the first 40 persons presenting the following entry blank most accurately filled in! Each winner will receive a Certificate for $5.00 in Merchandise redeemable at any of the cooperating stores.

RULES of CONTEST

1. Any person may enter this contest

2. Contestants must see all windows of stores cooperating in the contest. List not more than one "misplaced item of merchandise in the space opposite the name of each store printed in the entry blank (There will be but one "misplaced item" in each store window.)

3. A misplaced item is any article of merchandise in the window which is obviously not sold by a store displaying it. For instance, a shoe in a jeweler's window, or a "brand name" article which is not sold by the store displaying it. If you find no such item, mark in the space "No misplaced item." Merchants have the right to simulate the sale of the article to further mislead the contestants.

4. "Misplaced merchandise" will be displayed Thursday night, May 27, from 7:30 to 10 p m.

5. All answers must be written on the entry blank or facsimile.

6. All entry blanks must be turned in to the C of C office by 10 p m. Thursday, May 27. However, turn in your entry blank as early as possible—for, in case of tie, only the first 40 entry blanks with the least number of errors submitted to the C. of C. office win prizes.

7. The name and address of each contestant must appear on the entry blank.

8. The decision of the judges will be final. Winners will be announced in The Marion Star following the decision of the judges.

9. Prizes will be awarded to the first 40 contestants whose entry blanks record the most misplaced articles of merchandise correctly. There are no duplicate prizes—in case of ties the first entry blank submitted with the least number of errors wins.

10. Use Contest Entry Blank on this page or you may secure a blank at the Chamber of Commerce office.

GRANVILLE, O., May 26—Rev. George C. Foltz, 60, of Nashport, was injured fatally in a two-car accident west of here last night.

Grotto Arranges Stag Guest Night Program

A stag guest night has been planned for Thursday night by members of Kargar Grotto. The entertainment, scheduled for 7 o'clock, will be held at the Legion Dugout and a program will be followed by a chili supper. Dr. Carroll Ritchey will entertain with magic and Thomas D. Bain of the faculty at Harding High school, will give a talk and present pictures.

A meeting is announced for June 7 when a short form initiation will be held and plans discussed for attending the supreme council session to be held June 27 to July 1 at Atlantic City.

The advance sale of tickets for the Mills Bros. circus to be held here June 15 under the sponsorship of the Grotto, is progressing favorably, W. Clyde Morehouse, monarch, stated today. The show will present two performances at the fairgrounds.

75,000 IN LANCASTER FOR MOVIE PREMIERE

By The Associated Press

LANCASTER, O., May 26—Life was back to normal here today after four days of fanfare over the "Green Grass of Wyoming."

The movie had its first showing last night in this city's two theaters.

The theaters were still showing the picture today, but the movie stars who came here to help in the festivities — Peggy Cummins and Charley Coburn—and Lancaster's premiere queen, Virginia Jessup, were in Cincinnati for a "second premiere."

Waitresses in the hotel changed their green uniforms for white ones, businessmen took off their western hats, workmen began removing the bright-colored street banners and downtown merchants changed window displays.

Racing sequences in the movie—which deals with harness horse racing—were filmed at Lancaster fairgrounds last June.

Upwards of 75,000 people came here yesterday. There was a parade, complete with bands, floats and celebrities. Gov. and Mrs. Thomas J. Herbert rode in the mile-long procession.

The Herberts also attended the premiere, accompanied by the governor's son, Danny. Former Gov. and Mrs. George White and Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus also attended.

Alumni Banquet Is Held at Waldo

An annual alumni banquet was held by the Waldo school Alumni Association Saturday night at the school with approximately 150 persons present. The banquet, served by the Waldo American Legion auxiliary, was followed by a program and dancing.

Seventeen members of the class of 1948, presented by H. L. Swick, school superintendent, were welcomed into the association. The oldest class represented was the class of 1918, represented by one member, Mrs. W. G. McPeck, the former Edna Graham.

Officers of the association were elected for the new year, 1948-49, as follows: Leo Groll, president, Vinton Porterfield, vice president, Ralph Gerfen, treasurer, Donna Davis and Esther Augenstein, secretaries, Edna Rengert and Melba Swick, honorary members, Ray Burnoskey, Horace Wilson and Hope Mack, nominating committee, and Bob Denzer, Glenna Tanner and Darrell Denman, program committee.

Ed McKenzie presided as toastmaster for the program. The welcome to the class of 1948 was given by Ray Denzer, and the response was by Elinor Klingel.

CALLS STRIKE "WILDCAT"

By The Associated Press

CADIZ, O., May 26—Al Douglas, District United Mine Workers union representative, today described a walkout at Nelm's deep shaft coal mine as a "wildcat strike." He urged the 600 miners to return pending negotiations of their demand for the firing of a chief mechanic. They claimed he did hourly-rate work while on a monthly salary.

OHIO JOURNALISM HALL OF FAME JUDGES NAMED

By The United Press

COLUMBUS, May 26—Twenty-six newspapermen from all parts of the state yesterday were appointed to a panel of judges for the Ohio Journalism Hall of Fame.

Dr. James E. Pollard, director of the Ohio State University School of Journalism, sponsor of the Hall of Fame, said the new appointees and the 43 others who were reappointed today will vote early this summer for the 1948 nominees.

A subcommittee has proposed the names of O. O. McIntyre, the columnist, and Charles L. Knight, late publisher of the Akron Beacon Journal.

Among judges reappointed were: Louis H. Brush of Salem and Roy D. Moore of Canton, Brush-Moore Newspapers, and W. D. Thompson of the Delaware Gazette.

In Plain Words

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

THE THREE railroad unions, which threatened a strike, are up against a stone wall. Now they've suggested a way out for themselves.

They talk of "real" government seizure of the roads and even, in a vague kind of way, speak of the need for the government to buy up and own the railroads.

All this was said at a news conference called last night by the heads of 20 railroad unions. They are backing up the three which threatened to strike.

Before examining what was said, here is some background:

The three unions—engineers, firemen and switchmen—have been in dispute with the railroads since last fall.

James Marlow

President Truman appointed a board of fact-finders to look into the dispute. The board suggested a wage settlement. The unions said it was not enough, and threatened to strike.

Then on May 10 President Truman did this:

1. He ordered the government to seize the roads. So far this has been only a paper seizure. The railroad companies continue to run the roads, keeping whatever profits they made.

2. He ordered the government to get a federal court order (injunction) against a strike. That was done and it stopped the strike. The workers still are working.

Since that seizure May 10 the unions have been unable to talk the roads into giving them any more than Mr. Truman's fact-finders recommended.

So the union heads at last night's news conference suggested:

The government "really" should take over the roads. That would mean running them and taking whatever money the railroads are making—and, while so doing, reach a settlement with the unions.

And, in the written statement they issued, the union heads said this:

"Be it further resolved, that the government, moved by the present demonstration of the inability of railroad management to maintain satisfactory labor relations and conditions upon the railroads, and further in view of other recent and similar critical situations, as well as other failures of railroad management to meet the public need for efficient, prompt and full services, begin preparations for the transfer of railroad ownership from private interest to the United States of America."

WASN'T THIS SAYING clearly the unions were urging the government to take over the railroads by buying and owning and running them?

No, the union heads said, it didn't mean that. They said it meant this:

The government should "really" seize the roads now—instead of letting the companies run them—and not only settle the present dispute but, in so doing, fix a policy for settling similar disputes in the future.

If the government didn't do this now and fix such a policy, they said, then the government ought to buy up the railroads and run them itself.

At first glance that may shock a lot of people. Government ownership of the railroads in this country, which prides itself on free enterprise, would be a big step toward socialism.

But deep within it is a question which the union heads didn't answer to this writer's satisfaction.

AMERICAN LABOR UNIONS, including the railroad unions, want what is called "free, collective bargaining"—and that includes the right to strike—without any compulsory arbitration.

Compulsory arbitration means simply that the government appoints someone to decide a dispute between a union and an employer. His decision is final. Both sides have to accept it. There can be no strike.

The union heads said last night they don't want compulsory arbitration. But suppose the government steps in now and settles this dispute, giving the unions what they want whether the railroads like it or not.

That would be compulsory arbitration working one way: for the unions and against the railroads.

But it could work the other way too—against the unions.

And if the government owned the roads, the unions could hardly expect to be free to strike. That would be a strike against the government.

Now, without owning the roads at all, the government has stepped in and forbidden the unions to strike.

So in the end, under government ownership, the union would have to accept the government's final wage offer without a strike. That, in effect, would be compulsory arbitration although that's what the union heads said they don't want.

The union heads said they thought even under government ownership they'd be free to strike.

IBERIA CUB SCOUTS GET ADVANCEMENT HONORS

Special to The Star

IBERIA, May 26—Pack Committeeman M. Doyle Rusk, Earl Bowman and Don Bosh conducted a scout court of honor for Iberia Cub pack No. 35, Harding council area, at the school auditorium last week.

M. Doyle Rusk spoke on the outstanding success of the cub pack, which was founded in January of this year. He also paid high tribute to the late pioneer scouter, Rev. Eugese Rush, who presented Bobcat pins to the Iberia Cubs in January.

Denner Richard Maidens, Robert Riggs, Charles Miller of Den No. 1 and Denner Donald McClarren of Den No. 2 received Wolf achievement pins and golden arrows for elective requirements.

Mrs. Robert Maidens, Mrs. Kenneth Grooms, Mrs. Edwin Riggs and Mrs. Don Bosh, den mothers, presented the cubs in a musical skit, "We Girls." Those taking part were Gerald Bosh, Richard Maidens, Lambert McCown, David Grooms, Robert Riggs, Edward Stall, Ned Reece, Dean Garverick, Roland Sautter, Ronald and Donald McClarren.

A display of various cub scout projects was made, including bird houses, scrap books, toy airplanes and other collections of interest.

The cubs will meet each Tuesday afternoon at the homes of Mrs. Grooms and Mrs. Maidens for weekly den meetings. The monthly pack meetings will be held at the school, on the fourth Monday night of each month.

The group will participate in Memorial day services May 31 and sponsor a float and units in the Morrow county centennial parade on July 5.

GM's "New Approach"

THE General Motors wage formula will be the most important idea of the year in negotiations between management and union negotiators.

The formula will be the postwar equivalent of the wartime little steel formula. The fact it can be accepted or rejected, instead of being enforced by a government agency, will not rob it of the attraction that any plan is certain to have if its soundness is recognized by a key segment of a basic industry. Other negotiators looking for a way to solve the same kind of problems are inevitably inclined to follow a leader's example.

The General Motors formula goes like this:

The General Motors employes will get an 11-cent increase in hourly wage rates. This cannot be changed until next September at the earliest. At that time adjustment is permitted under a contract that runs until May, 1950. The adjustment, however, may be up or down, depending on the cost of living—whether it goes up or down between now and next September. If living costs go down, the 11-cent increase may be cut back by not more than 5 cents. If living costs go up, the 11-cent increase will be subject to a further boost, to be worked out by collective bargaining. In either event, General Motors employes will get a further increase of 3 cents in another year, regardless of what living costs do in the meantime. The formula provides an absolute floor for General Motors wages of $1.56 an hour, an average rate of $1.61 for the remainder of the summer, and a ceiling governed by the cost of living index.

The employer gets reasonable assurance of wage stability under the formula and positive assurance, provided the contract is honored by the union, of no work stoppages for the next two years. Employes get an immediate wage increase of 11 cents, a guaranteed increase of another three cents at the end of a year and assurance that any important increase in the cost of living will get automatic recognition under the new contract. The cost of living index prepared by the bureau of labor statistics will be used as a basis for adjustment.

Difference With a Wallop

FEDERAL JUDGE T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH will rule next Tuesday on the national labor relations board's request for a court order to keep John L. Lewis from refusing to bargain for a new mine contract.

Once more the cry will be heard throughout the land that government by injunction is being practiced. Some of the same union leaders who have forced the public to seek protection of its welfare in this way will be among the objectors.

They will overlook the difference between the injunctions that used to be issued against labor unions and the kind of an injunction being sought against Mr. Lewis. It's a difference with a wallop.

The old-fashioned injunction was sought by an employer. It was a one-sided weapon. Public opinion rebelled against its use. The Clayton act of 1914 and the Norris-LaGuardia act of 1932 were the result. Unfortunately, in the name of fairness to labor unions, they left the public at the mercy of unscrupulous union leaders.

The Taft-Hartley act of 1947 corrected that by allowing NLRB to petition a court for injunction against unions and union leaders under circumstances that leave the decision up to the members of the board—a public agency.

The injunction is no longer an employer's means of restraining a union or its leadership. It is the public's means of protecting itself against work stoppages that would hurt the general welfare. That is the difference. Mr. Lewis and the heads of the railroad Brotherhoods are answerable to the public when they plan to tie up the whole country with work stoppages. It is one of the reasons—perhaps the main one—why Mr. Lewis and other union chieftains want to scuttle the Taft-Hartley act. It cramps their style.

Hard on The FBI

THE FBI is being caught in the middle of squabbles between the executive and legislative departments. This is happening because the agency itself is under executive authority while its findings in some instances are of interest to legislative authority. It is a helpless bystander in the perennial struggle between the White House and congress.

The strugglers would do well to consider that there is less public interest in what they are struggling over than in the welfare of the FBI. Nothing should be allowed to hamper its usefulness as an agency charged with responsibility for the security of the United States.

The FBI should not be involved in bickering between branches of the government. That is not a proper part of its job. If the executive and legislative departments must carry on spy and spite work, they should consider it beneath the dignity of the FBI. As far as the public is concerned, interdepartmental bickering is on the same plane as Kentucky feuding and police state snooping.

The FBI deserves something better at the hands of politicians than to become involved in their endless bickering over petty issues of privilege and prestige.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Wallace Adopts Communist Technique for Campaign

COMMUNIST technique, fully adopted by Henry Wallace, is beyond belief. They have now started a terrific propaganda to give the impression that the United States started the cold war. For at least two years, every Soviet official of importance, not only within Soviet Russia but in the United Nations and throughout the world, has been attacking the United States, American institutions and American personalities, including President Truman. When before has any country submitted without reply or reprisal to such attacks as Vishinsky made upon the United States on its own soil loaned to UN?

SOKOLSKY

On the continent of Europe, the cold war was concentrated upon the United States with every weapon of smear, deceit, humiliation. Among the peoples who were eating our wheat and wearing our clothes, to whose children we were sending the chance to survive, the Soviet propaganda machine worked mercilessly to defame and denounce our motives. The billions of dollars in food and commodities were described as the poison of imperialism. Our pity and compassion were denounced as enslavement. Never in all his years of madness did Hitler denounce the United States with equal venom.

Peace, Our Objective

Our objective was peace. At San Francisco, at Potsdam, at the United Nations, Soviet Russia fought every constructive effort toward peace. Foul and wearisome became the repetitious veto, which served no other purpose than to prove to the Russian satellites and the weakened nations of Europe and Asia that the United States was nothing, that the world had to go the Soviet way or suffer Soviet antagonism and perhaps conquest through revolution.

The premise upon which Soviet Russia functions is the "inevitable" collapse of the of the American capitalist economy. You may recall that no sooner was the fighting war over than Henry Wallace, as secretary of commerce, issued phony statistics to indicate a collapse. "Boom or bust" was made into one of those slogans that captures the eye and stupifies the mind. A series of strikes was encouraged by Communist-directed unions and then there was a "second round" and then there was to be a "third round" of strikes and wage increases and economic disturbances.

Meanwhile, all the world was demanding aid from us and we were giving aid. And Soviet Russia was conducting a "cold war" designed to force upon us a huge bill for rearmament; costly for us, yet essential in view of their attitude. Surely, they assumed, no country could stand such a burden and not collapse. We not only did not collapse but we took on aid to Greece, Turkey and China; we took on the Marshall plan; we took on almost a wartime military budget. And although it all hurts and we know that we shall suffer from these costs—we have not collapsed. We are stronger, more united in our purposes than we were even during the fighting war.

Stalin Speaks!

So now they want us to end the cold war. Wallace writes to Stalin and Stalin writes to Wallace, and the American Communists and the remaining fellow-travelers shriek: "Stalin Has Spoken! Tremble and Obey!"

But the fact is that we did not start the cold war; we have conducted no cold war. We have pursued a constructive program of building a peaceful world in the United Nations. We have offered economic aid to nations in Europe and Asia. We have even permitted Soviet Russia to buy supplies here, and the Marshall plan calls for east-west trade. We have never sought to deprive a single nation of its freedom. We have even sought to rehabilitate our enemies.

How can we stop a cold war which has been a one-way war; Soviet Russia against the United States? They have been defeated in that cold war. They have been defeated by the resilience of the peoples of western Europe. They have been defeated by the survival of western European civilization. They have been defeated by the amazing productivity of the American people.

Instead of recognizing how vile they have been, they turn upon us and ask us to quit fighting them. Is that not the normal conduct of a bully? There can be bullies among nations as in the schoolyard.

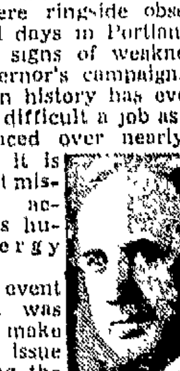
President or Vice President

By Raymond Moley

THE odds against Harold Stassen in the last two weeks of the primary fight were too great, even for a campaigner of iron nerves and endurance. Those of us who were ringside observers in the final days in Portland began to see signs of weakness in the ex-governor's campaign. No candidate in history has ever attempted so difficult a job as Stassen has faced over nearly two years. And it is natural that mistakes will accumulate as human energy ebbs.



MOLEY

As the event proved, it was an error to make a national issue of outlawing the Communist party. In this writer's opinion, any party advocating orthodox communism ought to be denied a place on the ballot. But the federal government cannot do that directly. The issue, is, under the Constitution, a matter for the states. Hence, two candidates for president were neglecting some real issues in arguing about the Communist party. And when the debate took place, Stassen made the fatal error of retreating to the Mundt bill, which professedly does not outlaw the Communist party as such.

More important than this in injuring Stassen was and is the growing talk among supporters of Vandenberg that the Minnesota man is not really running for the presidency, but for the vice presidency. Last year on a western trip Stassen stated that under certain circumstances he would accept the vice presidential nomination. At that time, I was in Minneapolis and learned at first hand how the announcement had taken the heart out of some of his supporters. They regarded it as a tactical mistake of the first order. It has taken a heavy toll.

Stassen has attempted to rectify this error by naming certain people with whom he will not run, such as Taft and Dewey. But he has not excluded Vandenberg, and that is seriously injuring his changes. It enables people to calculate that, since Vandenberg is along in years and not too vigorous, it is well to have a young substitute standing by. Also, that since Vandenberg has let himself be reported to be willing to be drafted for only one term, it would permit Stassen to go after the big job in 1952, at the still youthful age of 45.

This is all very nice in theory, but it raises serious questions and also weakens Stassen's drive for the top job. In the first place, it is extremely doubtful whether the convention would nominate a Vandenberg-Stassen slate. Midwestern and western politicians point out that since there are two distinct philosophies in foreign affairs in the Republican party, the convention would be likely to appease both, rather than one. In short, a Vandenberg-Green combination would be more likely than a Vandenberg-Stassen one, since in foreign affairs the latter combination represents only a single point of view.

Another, even more important factor is involved. The responsibility for executive government falls upon the president. The vice president, until the dread moment when he becomes acting president, is a legislative officer. Attempts by Roosevelt to use Henry Wallace in administrative work caused unending trouble. As head of the bureau of economic warfare, Wallace ran afoul of the jealousies and prerogatives of cabinet officers like Hull, and Jones. The result was to put Wallace back on the rostrum in the senate. There can be no fifth wheels around the executive department. The president and the president alone can direct administration.

Stassen would be well advised to aim high and continue to aim high, regardless of consequences. Those who ask for half a loaf in politics usually end up with nothing.

Just a Minute

Who Is This Piker, Dionne?

The birthrate of Oak Ridge, Tennessee is revealed to be 34 times the national average.

Who said the uses of atomic energy were strictly military?

I knew Oak Ridge was the nation's fastest growing city, but it never occurred to me the bulk of the new population was arriving by stork.

With a birthrate 34 times the national average, Oak Ridge will soon be larger than New York . . . What a spot for a diaper service.

Once the full potent of atomic energy is realized, we'll become known as the land of the free and the home of the prolific.

Incidentally, Oak Ridge must be full of Doctors, what with so many atomic scientists AND obstetricians.

Britain's New Budget

The composition of the national finances has become fantastic. The government boasts of its lavish social services and its enlightened policy of subsidies. But what sort of society does it create in order to finance its socialist experiments? It persuades millions of people that they cannot afford to pay the full cost of their food, housing, and other necessities; and it has to encourage the same people to spend lavishly on drink, tobacco and gambling. In this financial year the spiritual inheritors of the Puritan, Methodist, and Nonconformist traditions, the descendants of the Levellers, the apostles of the Common Man, and the heralds of the New Age hope to raise over a thousand million pounds out of booze, baccy, and betting to buttress the pillars of their New Jerusalim. It is a curious civilization that links up cheap milk for school children with double gins tossed down at 4 shillings sixpence a go.—Time and Tide, London.

Daily Bible Thought

Yet many regard God as a stern judge and forget that He is a loving father too and a wonderful friend, often when all others turn from us.—Lam. 3:25: "The Lord is good unto them that wait for Him, to the soul that seeketh him."

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, May 26, 1938.

Batteries in Hyde Park, London, boomed salute and public and private buildings hoisted flags in celebration of the 71st birthday anniversary of Queen Mother Mary. The queen's only celebration was a family luncheon party.

A staff of journalism students from Ohio Wesleyan university was in charge of the publication of the day's edition of The Star.

Thomas G. McGraw, 58, died at his home on Fahey street.

Mrs. Emma Bondley of Monroe street, junior past worthy high priestess of Marion Shrine No. 15, White Shrine of Jerusalem, was appointed deputy supreme worthy high priestess of District No. 1, at the annual convention of the International Shrine at Toronto, Canada.

Former Governor Myers Y. Cooper of Cincinnati was speaker for the fifty-ninth annual commencement exercises held by the Richwood High school. His subject was "The Road Ahead."

Bananas were selling five pounds for a quarter, eggs 19 cents a dozen, bread two loaves 15 cents, butter 26 cents a pound, sugar $1.23 for 25-pound bag, oleo two pounds for 19 cents, chickens 69 cents each, tomatoes two pounds for 17 cents, salmon two tall cans for 25 cents and watermelons 49 cents each.

Mrs. W. R. Roberts and Mrs. Clark Wingett were guests at a meeting of Circles 1 and 2 of Trinity Baptist church at the home of Mrs. C. S. Lippincott on East Center street.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

It was Saturday, May 26, 1928.

Fifteen hundred Marion boys and girls took part in a "tin can parade" through the downtown district as a part of the city's cleanup week campaign. They contributed 9,000 cans to pay for admission to a show at the Marion theater, the cans later being taken to the city garbage dump.

Search was begun for the Italian dirigible balloon, Italia, which was missing on an attempted flight over the North Pole with Gen. Umberto Nobile in command.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bull entertained members of the O. M. B. clue and their husbands at dinner in the Bull home on South High street.

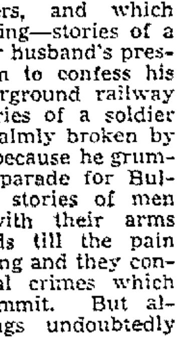
Mrs. F. H. Johnson entertained a company of friends at her home on South Prospect street complimenting Miss Betty Stine of Detroit, a guest at the Johnson home.

The Twilight Terror: 1

By Stewart Alsop

PRAGUE

IN THIS newest of the police states, there is no visible terror. Instead, Prague has an air of drab respectability. Dumpy women wheel their baby carriages in the lovely spring sunshine. The crowded trolley cars are painted a cheerful red. The restaurant food is worse than England's and the store windows are sparsely filled. Yet the air of determined, un-Marxist respectability persists. The western visitor even notes with some surprise an occasional peculiar Czech version of that intensely bourgeois importation, "The New Look." Except for the ubiquity of the tough, red-capped police, Prague might almost be any western European city. Yet there is a difference. The terror is invisible. Yet it is there, below the surface.



Joseph Alsop

Today, hardly three months since the Czechs meekly surrendered their liberties, the terror is still of a special and peculiar kind. There are stories, to be sure, which seep through to the isolated westerners, and which have a familiar ring—stories of a wife beaten in her husband's presence to force him to confess his part in the underground railway to the West; stories of a soldier whose arm was calmly broken by the secret police because he grumbled during the parade for Bulgaria's Dimitrov; stories of men kept standing with their arms above their heads till the pain became excruciating and they confessed to political crimes which they did not commit. But although such things undoubtedly happen, the chances are that they do not happen very often.

For the terror in Czechoslovakia is for the most part an oddly polite terror—for the time being. To be sure, the jails are so overflowing with political prisoners that the excess has had to be accommodated in "work camps"—the polite term for concentration camps. And the rubber hose and the rifle butt to the jaw are certainly occasionally found necessary—just how often is doubtless known only to the ministry of the interior's tough second-in-command, Jindrich Vassili, or to Colonel Rietzin, little-known chief of the O B Z. (the N.K.V.D. of this particular progressive democracy).

Yet far more typical than the rubber hose or the rifle butt of the fashion in which Czechoslovakia's new ruling class maintains its absolute authority is the case of a Czech whom we shall call Jan Konac. Mr. Konac might be a lawyer, or a small business man, or a doctor, or an anti-Communist trade union leader. He might even be the secretary of a rowing club or of the Pingpong association, since these two have been purified, like every aspect of Czech life. In this case, however, Mr. Konac is, or was, a civil servant.

Just a Note

Mr. Konac has not been clubbed or thrown into jail. Indeed, no one has even raised his voice to Mr. Konac. Yet Mr. Konac is a victim of the terror just as surely as the few who have felt the rifle butt or the eight to ten thousand who have fled to the cold comfort of the American DP camps in Germany. Before February, Mr. Konac was an argumentative and unwisely outspoken anti-Communist Social Democrat. One morning some weeks ago, Mr. Konac found a short note on his desk. It was signed by the action committee of his ministry. (Action committees were the chief instruments of purification—there was one for the Pingpong association too.) The action committee not impolitely informed Mr. Konac that he had been adjudged unsuitable for further employment in his current capacity.

So Mr. Konac lost his job. He also lost his beloved pension, for which he had worked long years at less than the going salary, in the expectation of a secure old age. A few days after the note arrived on his desk, Mr. Konac was informed by the action committee of his apartment house that he must vacate his apartment. Even so, Mr. Konac has not been sent to jail. He has not even been sent to the mines, although the law says that unless he finds another job within a limited number of weeks, the government can so dispose of him.

Finding Job Is Tough Job

But the difficulty is in finding another job. Always, when Mr. Konac applies, he is asked why he left the ministry. When he answers that the action committee found him unsuitable, the answer is always the same—"Sorry, all full up." In the end, Mr. Konac has taken a job as a workman, for which he is in no way suited, lest the government direct him to "suitable" employment. Although not a hair on his head has been touched, Mr. Konac no longer thinks of challenging the authority of his new masters. Indeed, at least in public, he professes his loyalty in most enthusiastic terms.

A kind of dim twilight terror thus broods over the country of the dead Masaryk and the old and broken Benes. Yet, for reasons which will be examined later in this space, those who should know are unanimous in the conviction that this twilight terror cannot last for long. Soon, perhaps within a few months, the night of terror must come.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

War in the Holy Land

THE world's improving, so I hear;
Man's hatreds now abate,
And yet a headline greets the eye
"Fight Reaches Jaffa Gate!"...
The tension lessens, so they say—
Peace seems a closer goal,
But look! A paper bears the news,
"Tanks near Mt. Zion roll"!

II

Mankind makes progress, it is said,
For peace and decency,
Yet roars of guns now shake the walls
About Gethsemane!....
More civilized the world becomes
As hatreds fade, 'tis said,
But still the Mount of Olives hears
A close-up hobnailed tread!

III

To tolerance the people move—
Oh, oft I hear the word!...
But in the Holy Sepulchre
The bombing planes are heard!..
Man through the ages has come far
From ways that spells his doom—
Such is the claim, but now I hear
The troops near David's Tomb!

IV

We fought one war to hold the lines
For those who justice seek,
And fought another for the same
Yet holy hills are bleak!...
Vast millions made the sacrifice...
White crosses countless stand,
But bombers strafe and gunners kill
Within the Holy Land!

V

Oh, long the road that man has come
To meet succeeding tests,
But there are pools of blood not far
From where the Savior rests!. .
And valleys that heard Moses' word
Are filled with bitter pain
As man combats his fellow man
Where holiness should reign!

High Dive

By TRUMAN TWILL

Advertisers are bearing down on sales campaigns for the new models of bathing suits. The wading season is about to start.

There are some notable features about the new models. One of them is, as nearly as can be made out by a study of the illustrations, the ice-tong brassiere. (These remarks are confined to bathing suits for women. The new models for men are the same fuddy-duddy things already familiar to yawning millions).

This ice-tong device for women, however, is something to marvel at. It clamps on the part of the body affected, covering it after a fashion—and does this with no visible means of support. The principle is not new, having been used in connection with the so-called backless evening gown, but this is the first time it has been used on a bathing suit.

The hoot-nanny that goes with it, provided the beach censors have quit caring, is a gadget introduced last season on the Riviera, it says here. That is preposterous, of course. The gadget was introduced thousands of years ago in the banana heavens of the South Sea islands and is described in any standard dictionary under "breech clout."

The clout and the tong brassiere have a common characteristic. Both are so obviously insecure that they make going into the water impossible for the wearer. It would be a miracle if they could be kept in place in an ordinary bathtub.

This is significant. It amounts to formal recognition by all concerned that what women wear on bathing beaches is not necessarily a bathing suit but may be a costume cleverly contrived to conceal the fact the wearer actually is naked.

Things have been going in this direction for years. This year they have gone so far that a well known female swimmer, Esther Williams, has made a public statement ridiculing the pretense that a few twisted wisps of cloth can be called a bathing suit.

This is the final break with the carefully nurtured illusion that there is some connection between wisps of cloth and acquatic sport. There isn't. The wisps are concerned with the non-aquatic sport of attracting attention. The bathing beach only happens to be a favorite setting for indulgence in this sport.

Any female who gets confused and ventures into the water in one of the new outfits will have to stay there until friends come to the rescue with an armful of towels.

A vendetta, in its original sense, was the custom by which the nearest kinsman of a murdered man undertook to continue the quarrel and avenge the death. Later it became an obligation for the entire family to assume.

Reunion Is Planned By Prospect Alumni

Special to The Star

PROSPECT, May 26—Preparations are being made for the Prospect Alumni reunion to be held at the school house next Saturday night.

Mrs. Paul E. Lauer, program chairman, announced this week that the reunion would be in the form of an indoor festival and that the theme will be "Beautiful Ohio."

The program, to begin at 8 p.m., will feature vocal and instrumental music and readings. Herschel Hecker will be the master of ceremonies. The 25-year class, the class of 1923, will be honored. A prelude will be played by Paul B. Gast. The social will feature entertainment for everyone, dancing, cards, refreshments, etc.

Again members who are planning to attend are urged to purchase tickets before the evening of the reunion. They may be obtained from Ashorn's drug store, the Prospect Monitor and at the Prospect library.

St. Mary Year Book Distributed to Pupils

The Marian, St. Mary Parochial High school annual, is being distributed this week. Rededicated to the Queen of Teeners, Mary Immaculate, patroness of St. Mary school, the volume is bound in blue, the front cover embossed with a plaque of the school patroness and the name and year of the publication.

Photographs, together with tributes to Bishop Michael J. Ready of Columbus, Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V.F., pastor, and assistant pastors Rev. Elmer H. Boyden, Rev. Hugh Murphy and Rev. Leo Benedetti, and tributes to the school faculty and parents, fill the early pages of the volume. Photographs of the seniors, school events, football and basketball coaches and teams, school committees, together with pictures of the juniors who will be the class of 1949, the choir, "teeners" complete the yearbook.

Ann McGinnis and Virginia Tobin were co-editors, Richard Schuler and Thomas Wagner served as business managers and Dan Smith was the student photographer.

MISS NELL ROBERTS was elected president at a combined business and program meeting of Iota Alpha chapter, Pi Omicron sorority, Monday evening when the members met at Mrs. D. T. Mills' kindergarten on Hill street. Miss Evangeline Miller, a captain in the WAC during World War II, was a guest speaker. Elected with Miss Roberts were Miss Geneva Kruskamp, vice president; Miss Kathryn Heistand, recording secretary, Miss Marguerite Howe, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Florence Dixon, treasurer. Miss Miller told of the experiences during her years of service and described interesting countries and cities in which she was stationed. When the chapter meets June 8 the guest speaker will be Mrs. Mabel Wheatley.

Marion Bride's Home Featured in Magazine

The attractive apartment home of Mr. and Mrs. John Platt of New York City is shown in the current issue of Good Housekeeping, as an example of what can be done in solving today's housing problem. Mrs. Platt, a bride of last summer, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Schaffner of St. James street. The interior sketches are by Mr. Platt and are in color.

As both Mr. and Mrs. Platt are artists, the article states, they pooled tastes and talents, and with wedding presents created a memorable first home. Combining accumulated possessions, the studio has been converted into two pocket-size rooms, each approximately 12 by 12. No less a carpenter than an artist, Mr. Platt built one of the pieces of furniture shown in the pictures.

EXCHANGING VOWS FRIDAY

BUCYRUS — The approaching marriage of Miss Geraldine Mae McMichael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. McMichael of North Robinson road, and Frank J. Bowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. To Persons Who Are Between 30 and 50 . . .

If you never have had the experience of making arrangements for a funeral, it would be well to become informed on the subject. That responsibility most commonly falls upon men and women between the ages of 30 and 50.

All too frequently, they are entirely unprepared for the task. It leaves them seeking answers to many unfamiliar questions. That is why the management of the Hughes Funeral Home publishes these announcements, and why we offer any other information about funeral service and its cost.

There is nothing about our methods of doing business that the public may not know. We invite consultation.

ENGAGED. Mary Ellin Berlin (above), daughter of songwriter Irving Berlin and Mrs. Berlin, is engaged to marry Dennis Sheedy Burden, according to an announcement by the bride-to-be's parents at New York. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Townsend Burden of New York.

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Orahood of Windsor street are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Florence, and Arthur Schurch of Marion which took place in their home Saturday. Large bouquets of gladioli formed the setting for the double ring ceremony read at 10:30 a. m. by Rev. Don Hochstettler, pastor of the First Evangelical United Brethren church.

The bride was costumed in a beige dress with which she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her accessories were brown and beige, and her corsage was of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Roszman of near Meeker were the attendants. Mrs. Roszman wore a pink dress with blue and white accessories.

A graduate of Harding High school and the Marion Business college, the bride was before her marriage an employe of the Ohio Public Service Co. Her husband was graduated from Essex High school and during World War II served in the Pacific theater in the army air corps. He is employed by the Ohio Public Service Co. at the Scioto Power plant.

Dinner for the wedding party was held at Ringers Inn, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip. For the present, they will make their home with the bride's parents.

Altrusa Dinner Given for Heads Of Service Clubs

FOLLOWING an annual custom members of the Marion Altrusa club invited heads and representatives of other service clubs in the city to join them for dinner and a program Monday night at Hotel Harding. Professor Edward A. Wright, humorist, lecturer and entertainer, who is head of the department of theater arts at Denison university, Granville, was the guest speaker, and the musical part of the program was by Marjorie Keeler, violinist.

Professor Wright entertained for more than an hour with character sketches and impersonations both humorous and serious and provided his audience with a delightful evening's program. Marjorie Keeler, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Malvina S. Keeler, played a group of three numbers, "Call of the Plains," by Rubin Goldmark, "Serenade Espanol," Chaminade-Kreisler, and "Meditation" from "Thais," Massenet. For an encore she played "The Swan" by Saint Saens.

Preceding the program a skit in which highlights and aims of the guest service clubs were brought out was presented by Miss Mary Ellen Kerr, Miss Ruth Kleinmaier, Miss Lillian Plack, Miss Margaret Huffman, Mrs. Beulah Cathers and Miss Lydia Ebel.

Mrs. Jane Ross, president, welcomed the guests and Miss Ebel, program coordinator, was in charge of the program hour. Guests included Miss Mary K. Miley, president, and Miss LaVern Lash, president-elect of the Business and Professional Women's Club, A. M. Hornby, secretary of the Exchange club, and Mrs. Hornby, U. A. Nystrom, president of the Kiwanis club, and Mrs. Nystrom, Lowell Williams, of the Lions club, and Mrs. Williams, Frank M. Foster, president of the Rotary club, and Mrs. Foster, and Richard Myers, president of the Y's Men's club, and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Fouts, Mrs. R. M. Ewing, Mrs. B. E. Gibson, Mrs. L. K. McGinnis, Mrs. Lillian Quigley, Miss Florence Stough, Miss Mary Lou Cunningham, Craig Rogers, Anson Pickerel and Wendell Wiant, and Pauline Oiler, junior Altrusan, and Mrs. Edward Fahey of Los Angeles, Calif., a former member of the Marion club.

A window box arrangement of purple, yellow and [illegible] iris formed the center [illegible] and bouquets of these flowers were used in colorful arrangements on the table arranged to form an "A" for the hostess club.

Group singing directed by Miss Mary M. O'Donnell with Miss Kerr at the piano closed the program hour.

Mother-Daughter Party Held by D. of I. Circle

A program and social hour featured the mother-daughter party held by Our Lady of Victory circle, Daughters of Isabella, Monday night in Maira hall. Guests aside from the mothers and daughters included Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., pastor, and Rev. Elmer Boyden, assistant pastor at St. Mary church.

Gifts were presented to the oldest mother present, Mrs. John Hogan and to the youngest mother, Mrs. William Haubert.

The program opened with the origin of Mother's day and a tribute to mothers, by Mrs. Mary Maxwell, regent, and Billy Wagner sang "Ave Maria," "Little Old Mother of Mine" and "Rose of Tralee." Regina Haas and Margaret Hamilton sang "Mother" and "Irish Lullaby," with the accompaniment on the accordion played by Miss Haas. Marilyn McMahon gave a reading, "My Mother," and Margaret Ann Cooper, daughter of Mrs. Edith Cooper, past regent, sang "Lilacs" and "Songs My Mother Taught Me." A talk in keeping with the occasion was given by Rev. Spickerman.

For the social hour refreshments were served from a buffet table decorated with spring flowers in crystal containers and lighted with candles. Blue and white predominated in the color note. During the social hour Miss Haas played the accordion and the party closed with the singing of "'Tis the Month of Our Mother," by the assembly. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. Cooper.

Arrangements were in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. Mary Hamilton, chairman, Mrs. Hazel Simmons, Mrs. Josephine Millisor, Mrs. Irene McKim, Mrs. Lucy LaValley, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson and Mrs. Audrey Simonis.

EVANGELIST ADDRESSES OLD AGE PENSION GROUP

Rev. George Poole, an evangelist of Cincinnati, who with Mrs. Poole is conducting services in Marion at the First Wesleyan Methodist church on Silver street, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Old Age Pension Society of Marion county Friday afternoon in the Eagles hall.

Taking his text from the 11th chapter of Hebrews, Rev. Poole told the members that "faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen" and he urged them "to have faith in a living God who by grace can save us from sin." Rev. Poole said "we are living under grace dispensation and not under the law" and that "you should keep your eye on the eternal city whose builder and maker is God."

Rev. and Mrs. Poole, introduced by Rev. Eldon Martin, pastor of the First Wesleyan Methodist church, also played accordions and sang several songs.

The meeting, in charge of Arthur Hershner, president, opened with group singing of "America," the Lord's Prayer by the group, and the salute to the flag. The choir sang "Power in the Blood," and Christian Ruth and William E. Sergent sang "Sweet Peace, the Gift of God's Love." To close the meeting, the choir sang "Some Bright Morning," and Rev. Poole offered prayer.

SEE BROADCAST OF TOWN HALL

Marion Group Goes to Springfield for Program To Be Here in August.

Robert Solinger, assistant secretary of the Marion Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Solinger, and Don Allen attended the ABC network broadcast of "America's Town Meeting of the Air" last night in Memorial hall in Springfield. Last minute business affairs made attendance impossible for H. G. Roby, and Hugh E. Webster, secretary of the chamber.

Mr. Solinger reported this morning the broadcast was one of the most interesting and enjoyable programs he had attended with a fast paced discussion of the question "What's Wrong with Our Cities" presented by Frank J. Lausche, Democratic nominee for governor of Ohio; Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey of Minneapolis, a candidate for the U. S. senate from Minnesota, and Robert H. Armstrong, New York realtor and editor.

The primary object of the visit of the Marion delegation was to obtain information to be used when the program is presented here in August at the Palace theater under the sponsorship of the Marion Chamber of Commerce.

Solinger described the exchanges of ideas between Senator McCarthy and Mayor Humphrey as especially spirited, these two panel members holding opposite views on how the attack on city problems should be directed.

Lausche, former Ohio governor, believes most problems facing American cities can be solved by having people "return to the soil." He said increased population brought most of the current city problems. The answer, he said, is a mass "de-urbanization movement."

"Relief problems in cities have increased to a point where they can no longer be handled on a municipal level," Lausche added, "and the cities have less revenues to solve the problems now than they had before the war."

McCarthy and Armstrong urged standardized housing codes, and Lausche called for modernization "of archaic codes."

SILVER ST. SCHOOL BIDS TO BE OPENED

Contract To Be Let at Once if Proposals Are Approved.

Bids on the Silver Street school improvement project, first phase of the city board of education's two million dollar school construction program, will be received Saturday.

They will be opened at 1 p. m. in the city school administration office. Superintendent of Schools Lester L. Dickey indicated the board of education intended to let the contract without delay if bids received were satisfactory.

It was hoped that the Silver street project would be completed and the new addition ready for occupancy by the second semester opening in January.

The board has earmarked $150,000 for the Silver street school improvement. They include rehabilitation of the present building and construction of an addition to the east of the present building. The school will be redecorated. A new heating plant will be installed. Relighting, included under the rehabilitation program, has already been done.

The addition comprising two classrooms and a larger all purpose room will be linked to the present building by passageway.

Second phase of the city school construction program which comprises erection of a new junior high school on North State street, is expected to get under way sometime next year. Architects are completing plans for the building now and advertizing of bids for construction was looked for this fall by the board of education.

OSU STUDENT 'REFORMER' QUITS IN PROTEST OF FEE

By The Associated Press

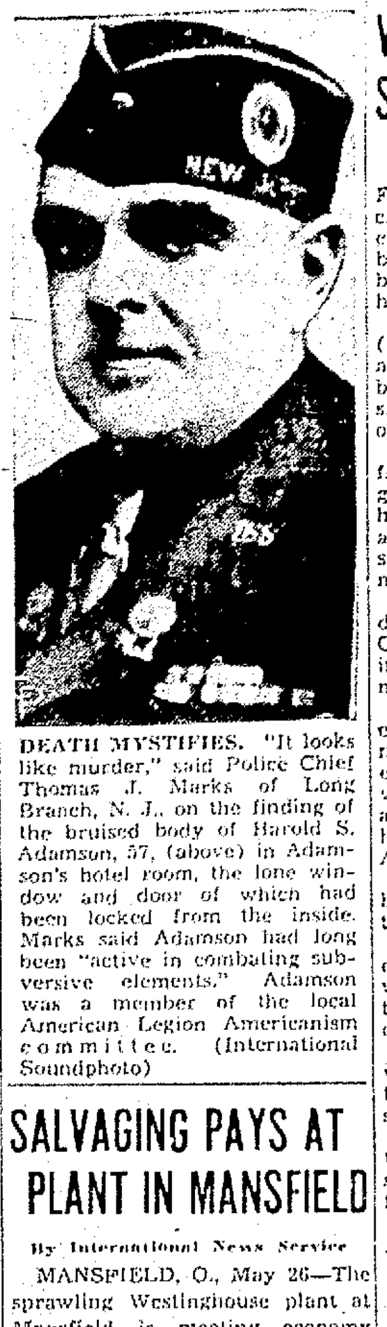
COLUMBUS, O., May 26 — Walter C. Stross, Ohio State university's election reformer, said today he was withdrawing from School.

He said he was quitting because he refused to pay the $5 fee required of all students for the new Student Union building.

"I've been taught to give, but not to have things taken away from me," said the 30-year-old Cincinnati ex-GI who has been trying to get the student senate elections committee to accept $3,000 from him to buy voting machines.

The voting machines, he claimed, would prevent campus political manipulation.

"I will not return to Ohio State until the Union fee becomes non-compulsory," Stross added.



DEATH MYSTIFIES. "It looks like murder," said Police Chief Thomas J. Marks of Long Branch, N. J., on the finding of the bruised body of Harold S. Adamson, 57, (above) in Adamson's hotel room, the lone window and door of which had been locked from the inside. Marks said Adamson had long been "active in combating subversive elements." Adamson was a member of the local American Legion Americanism committee. (International Soundphoto)

MANSFIELD, O., May 26—The sprawling Westinghouse plant at Mansfield is meeting economy with a capital "E" to the tune of $800,000 yearly.

That sum represents the savings made by carefully collecting leftovers and turning them into assets instead of liabilities.

Under the salvage program set up at the electric appliance division even the shipping tags are saved.

Works Manager C. L. Van Deran, who started the plant-wide salvage operation, pointed out that the amount of scrap was considerable in a plant making a highly diversified line of products.

By utilization of this scrap, Westinghouse saves, among other items 37,725 gallons of solvents, oil and thinners; 60,000 gallons of primed and finish paints and $20,000 in paper.

For example, paint, which would ordinarily be lost, is picked up by a water fall behind the spray booths, deposited in a filter system and remade into a useable product.

Poisonous snakes can strike less than the length of their bodies.

VETERAN U.S. CRUISER SUNK BY NAVY SHOTS

By The Associated Press

WITH THE U.S. FIRST TASK FLEET, May 26—Two swift, clean torpedo hits sank the U.S. cruiser Salt Lake City after bombs, shells and rockets had battered her sturdy hulk for hours.

The end came at 1:52 p. m. (Pacific Daylight time) yesterday after five hours of intermittent bombardment with everything 15 ships and scores of planes had to offer.

The famous old swaybacked fighting ship went down almost gracefully. She rolled over and hid her grotesquely twisted masts and shell holes in the sea. Her stern rose and then she slid beneath the waves, bow first.

Her grave is in the great depths, 130 miles off the southern California coast. She went down in 2,000 fathoms, more than two miles, of water.

Adm. C. D. Ramsey, commander of the Pacific fleet, who witnessed the sinking, said: "In general the functioning of material was excellent. The Salt Lake City, a grand veteran of war and peace, has completed her last service. A final well done."

The early stages of the bombardment were limited in order to prolong the practice.

As the Salt Lake City went down, Navy committal services were held on the submarine tender Nereus, standing off a couple of miles.

Rear Adm. Bertram J. Rodgers, who was captain of the cruiser at the battle of the Kommandorskies, off Attu, said:

"Today the Navy is doing what the Japs could not do—we are sinking our own ship. She has fulfilled her destiny."

Newark Youth Held In Sweetheart's Death

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, O., May 26—Robert Lehman, 20-year-old sailor, was charged with first degree manslaughter today in the fatal shooting of his sweetheart, Betty Stevens, May 15.

Lehman was arrested early today in Utica and brought to the Licking county jail here.

The shooting occurred at a Buckeye Lake park shooting gallery. Sheriff's deputies said a .22 caliber rifle, which Lehman believed to be empty, was accidentally discharged.

The girl, a 17-year-old high school senior, died Sunday.

They were to have been married this summer.

Stranahan in British Tourney's 4th Round

By The Associated Press

SANDWICH, ENGLAND, May 26—Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., reached the fourth round of the British amateur golf championship today eliminating Gerald Micklem, British Walker Cup star, 4 and 3.

His triumph, making him the first American to qualify for the fourth round, followed second-round victories by defending champion Willie Turnesa of White Plains, N. Y., and former titleholder Bob Sweeny of New York City.

Parent Sentenced For Assaulting Teacher

By The United Press

INDIANA, Pa., May 26—Mrs. Levina Fulmer of Chambersville, Pa., was sentenced to a year in jail today for assaulting a teacher who reprimanded her 10-year-old daughter.

She was sentenced by Judge E. E. Creps after she pleaded guilty to charges of aggravated assault brought by Mrs. Clara McGara, Chambersville grade school teacher.

It was testified that Mrs. McGara slapped Mrs. Fulmer's daughter when she refused to study in class.

CITY GETS SAFETY AWARD

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 26—Cleveland held the honor today of having the safest streets of any large city in the nation. The city, which competed with 13 other metropolitan centers with more than 500,000 population, was presented the award last night by the National Safety council. Earl F. Reeb, Ohio director of highways, also presented a safety award for top state honors.

"DEAD END KID" JAILED. Actor Leo Gorcey, former "dead end kid" of the movies, sits in jail in Van Nuys, Calif. after a shooting at his home while his estranged wife, Evalene, was trying to enter it with two private detectives. Police Officer L. A. Webber quoted Gorcey as saying "I was just trying to scare them. I did not see her." He was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon.

Officers Nominated By Knights of Columbus

Nomination of officers was held, reports of the state convention given and plans discussed for initiation and conferring of degrees June 20, at a meeting of Marion Council No. 671, Knights of Columbus, Monday night. The annual election of officers will be held June 8, and degree work will be conferred also at this time.

The class of candidates initiated on June 20 will honor Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., state chaplain, in recognition of the fortieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

Reports of the convention held recently at Columbus were given by Thomas E. Andrews, reelected state deputy, Floyd Cornely, L. A. Axe and Joseph M. Dunn. It was announced that a dinner would be held next week honoring members of the council who participated in the bowling tournament held recently at Cincinnati.

Reports Massacre Of 500 Reds in China

By The Associated Press

CHINGCHUAN, Chensi Province, China, May 26 — A story of the massacre of 500 Chinese Communist prisoners by National troops was told today by Gen. Ma Wen-Ting.

Half the prisoners, he said, were beheaded with great broadswords carried by his fierce Moslem and Buddhist troops. The others were killed with hand grenades.

The mass killing was carried out last week at Ninghsien, a Kansu provinc village near here.

The general, deputy chief of staff of the National 82nd division, said an uprising among the prisoners caused the massacre.

Marion Women at National P.-T.A. Meeting

CHINGCHUAN, Shensi Provdent of the City Union. P.-T. A. is in Cleveland attending the National Congress of Parents and Teachers which is closing its annual convention today with studies of problems confronting local P.-T. A. groups. Among those attending are Mrs. Arthur Noble, Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Charles Keck from the Oak Street unit, and Mrs. Thomas Reed Jr., who will serve as president next year and Mrs. Glenn Kellogg of Oakland Heights unit. The convention will end tonight with a banquet at Hotel Statler.

An address by Margaret Bourke-White, photographer and editor, is on the program today, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Cleveland.

STRIKE VOTE SET

By The Associated Press

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., May 26—AFL union drivers of the Valley Motor Bus Co. will vote tomorrow on whether to strike for 30-cent hourly wage raises, William B. Swaney, president of the local here, said today. The 127 drivers operate buses here and in Steubenville, Toronto, Wellsville; Chester and Newell, W. Va.; and Midland, Pa., and an interurban route of about 50 miles between Steubenville and Beaver, Pa.

WALLACE ON BALLOT

By The Associated Press

SALT LAKE CITY, May 26—Henry A. Wallace's third party will appear on Utah's November election ballot. Gordon Hoxie, chairman of the Wallace for president committee of Utah, yesterday filed with the secretary of state petitions containing 1,688 names. Only 500 were needed.

STUDY GM CONTRACT IN CHRYSLER PARLEY

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 26 — Terms of General Motors corporation's history-making wage agreement with its CIO auto workers were studied today by negotiators seeking today to end the 15-day Chrysler strike.

Representatives of Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers return to the bargaining table today for the first time since 75,000 production workers walked out May 12.

Michigan's Gov. Kim Sigler asked the resumption of wage talks and arranged the session, but he sent no representative.

The UAW's Chrysler negotiating team — officially demanding a 30-cent hourly wage boost —has given no indication whether it would accept an 11-cent increase geared to the cost of living such as the one that ended a strike threat at General Motors.

Nor has the corporation commented on possibilities of raising its best previous offer of six cents an hour to a figure matching the General Motors commitment in a two-year contract approved yesterday.

But throughout the auto industry it was believed the GM-UAW settlement would provide a pattern.

It was expected to bring the Chrysler strike to a quick conclusion and have a definite effect on coming wage talks between the union and the Ford Motor Co., which has suggested a pay cut.

Average hourly wages in the industry's big three—General Motors, Chrysler and Ford—are about $1.50. The GM boost raises the figure in its plants to $1.61 per hour, at least until September. Then wages will be reviewed and possibly revised with reference to the cost of living.

Officers Are Elected By Hi-Y Clubs Here

RUSSIANS YIELD ON PUBLICATION BAN

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, May 26—The Russians notified American authorities today they are ready to work out free exchange of publications between the Soviet and U. S. zones of Germany.

Col. Gordon E. Textor, head of the American information control division, last week banned the importation of Soviet-licensed publications into the American zone in retaliation for wholesale confiscation and other discriminations against American-licensed publications in the Soviet zone.

In a conciliatory letter today, Lt. Gen. M. I. Drativin, the Russian deputy military governor, asked his opposite number in the U. S. zone, Maj. Gen. George Hays, to rescind the prohibition.

"I can tell you," the letter said, "We hope to come to a suitable settlement by which every possibility of infringement of procedure for exchange of papers will be excluded."

The U. S. deputy commander of Berlin, W. T. Babcock declared last night the Russians seized 200 Germans at Oranienburg, outside Berlin, on May 15 and transported them to Saxony, where the Russians are reported to be operating uranium mines.

Babcock made the charge in response to a Russian accusation at a meeting of the deputies that the American military government had issued an "undemocratic" order forbidding workmen in the U. S. sector to take jobs elsewhere.

Treating Throat with Penicillin Lozenges

Both penicillin and the sulfonamide drugs are valuable in the treatment of throat infections, but they must be used with care and only under the direction of a physician because not even these wonder drugs will be effective when applied hit or miss.

For example, acute sore throat is usually only a part of a general infection of the upper respiratory passages. Thus, to treat the throat with penicillin while neglecting the nose or nasal sinuses will not result in a cure.

However, many physicians, in such cases, advise the use of penicillin lozenges which are allowed to dissolve slowly in the mouth, or they may suggest a similar preparation of one of the sulfonamide drugs.

In such cases, the nose is also carefully examined by the doctor to determine if there is any infection present in the sinuses and, if such infection is present, treatment of the sinuses is carried out.

The prolonged sucking of penicillin lozenges sometimes causes a sore tongue which may be more unpleasant than the original sore throat. Fortunately, this condition of the tongue clears up when the treatment is stopped.

Vincent's angina, or trench mouth, is another condition which may be cleared up quickly with penicillin. Penicillin lozenges are also useful here. In trench mouth, there are ulcers or sores in the mouth. In severe cases, not only should be penicillin lozenges be used, but the penicillin should also be given by injection into a muscle.

Other measures important in the treatment of this disease are the elimination of pockets in the gums, and the giving of vitamin B-complex and vitamin C.

As a rule, acute tonsillitis clears up in several days with rest in bed, a light diet, and the giving of plenty of fluids, but recovery may be speeded by the use of penicillin lozenges. In severe cases, penicillin may be given by injection into a muscle, or one of the sulfonamide drugs can be taken by mouth.

Sometimes an abscess forms in the tissues around the tonsils. This is known as a peritonsillar abscess. The giving of penicillin or sulfonamide will help to bring this abscess to a head. Then it can be opened and the infected material drained out.

In chronic infection of the tonsils, neither the sulfonamide nor the penicillin seems to bring about a cure. In such cases, removal of the tonsils is required.

Questions and Answers

L. S.: For years I have been passing large amounts of urine. I have been examined and no sugar was found. Is this serious?

Answer: It is possible that you have what is known as diabetes insipidus.

In the treatment of this condition an attempt should be made to reduce the amount of liquids. In some cases, gradually reducing the intake of salt and protein is useful, while in others, daily injections of the extract of the posterior lobe of the pituitary gland has been helpful.

The condition is not a serious one.

NYC 1948 EARNINGS EXCEED LAST YEAR

Special to The Star

ALBANY, N. Y., May 26—The New York Central Railroad's President Gustav Metzman told stockholders today that the 1948 outlook is for net earnings "above those of 1947," when net income was $2,306,082, or 36 cents a share, on total operating revenues of $703,340,527.

Mr. Metzman's statement was made here at the annual stockholders meeting, at which all of the company's 15 directors were reelected. The Central's president said:

"Operations and financial results during the initial four months of 1948 were seriously affected by the unusually severe weather from Christmas through the first half of February, and then by the coal walkout from the middle of March until the middle of April. The coal strike not only cost us substantial coal tonnage but, as the effect of the strike spread to other industries, cost us other tonnage as well."

Reporting on the present status of the large-scale improvement program of the Central System and affiliated companies, and the opportunities this program offers for improving both earnings and service, Mr. Metzman stated:

"The postwar improvement program of the New York Central System and affiliated companies—the largest undertaken by any railroad—stands at approximately $287,000,000. Of this, more than $235,000,000 is for new freight and passenger locomotives and cars received or ordered since the start of 1945, and the remainder is for improvements in roadway and structures."

Moose Lodge Receives Twelve Applications

Twelve applications for membership were accepted Monday night by the Marion Moose Lodge when plans for coming events were discussed and reports received on recent district events.

It was reported that Ralph Klingel, governor of the Marion lodge, had been named president of the Fifth district at a meeting held at Upper Sandusky May 19. Named to serve with Klingel were Earl Leonard of Bucyrus as vice president and Clifford Neff of Carey as secretary.

Joint induction ceremonies for candidates from the various lodges in the district will be held June 6 at Upper Sandusky. The local class of candidates and accompanying delegation will leave here at 1:30 p. m. by chartered bus. Degree work will be administered by the Galion degree team.

Announcement was made that the Moose softball squad will play their opener June 8, meeting the Sandusky lodge team at Battery Park in Sandusky. A bus will be provided for the team and lodge members who plan to attend.

Also announced was a meeting of Fifth district officers with officials of the Moose Legion scheduled for Clyde June 9 and a regularly scheduled Fifth district meeting in Mansfield June 16.

PAROCHIAL GRADUATES

BUCYRUS—Ten boys and girls of Holy Trinity Catholic parochial school will be graduated next Sunday in the church following high mass. The Rev. Fr. Leo Reinartz will give the address. The eighth grade graduates are Charles Evers, James Haala, Robert Kline, Charles Klingenberger, James McMahon, Donald Reager, Ernest Teyuor, Joan Thiel, James Wurm and Barbara Zwilling.

SENECA COUNTY AUDITOR REFUSES CIRCUS LICENSE

By The Associated Press

TIFFIN, O., May 26—Amandus B. Grossman, Seneca county auditor, doesn't like circuses. He considers them a nuisance.

So, when the Dailey Bros. circus requested a license for the Tiffin performance June 15, Grossman refused to grant it yesterday.

"They (the circuses) take more money from a community than they leave," Grossman said. He declined to expand his remarks.

Grossman said a circus advance man told him the circus would play in Tiffin—license or no license. The auditor said he replied:

"If so, we'll see what the courts say."

METHODISTS PLAN CLERGY PAY STUDY

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 26—Ohio Methodists plan a year-long study of ministerial salary problems.

The church's annual conference today set up a commission to study cleric pay. The commission was asked to consider salary minimums and equalizations, and to decide whether to pay all salaries out of one pool.

The 11 district superintendents comprising the conference cabinet recommended the commission. Following conference approval of the project, the cabinet named four of its members—Dr. John Taylor Alton of Columbus, Dr. F. Bringle McIntosh of Toledo, Dr. John M. Versteeg of Lima and Dr. S. M. Ingmire of Zanesville—to the commission.

Prof. Rockwell Smith of the Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill., was the main speaker last night.

What the church needs, he said, is vigorous leadership and a positive rather than "anti" approach in small towns.

Rural, non-farm communities have problems frequently regarded as confined to big cities, Smith continued. They are growing rapidly, they are sick and they are old, he added.

Dr. Lester L. Roush of Columbus, executive secretary of the Ohio conference's board of trustees, was named conference treasurer yesterday.

Elected as one of his assistants was Rev. E. R. Stafford Jr. of Ridgeway.

EMPLOYE FOR 56 YEARS

BUCYRUS—Elmer Seits, carpenter, is serving his fifty-sixth year as such, all of them in the two locations during that time of the Shunk Manufacturing company. At a testimonial dinner Mr. Seits was given special recognition, along with one woman, Mrs. Stanley Dinkle, who has been a stenographer with the company for 23 years. All of 46 employes who have been with the firm five or more years have received service pins from E. R. Standfuss, general manager.

ERIE TICKET AGENTS TO MEET TONIGHT

Conference Called Here on Passenger Efficiency.

A program to furnish Erie Railroad passengers with the utmost in courtesy and efficiency will be explained to ticket agents and ticket office personnel in this area at a conference scheduled at Hotel Harding tonight at 7 o'clock, it was announced at the company offices here today.

The meeting will be conducted by Alfred Fynn, general passenger agent, and Charles D. Mee, chief clerk of the passenger accounting department, in cooperation with superintendents, station supervisors and division passenger representatives.

Open forum discussion of efficient methods for handling reservations and tickets and the application of regulations will feature the meeting. Advantages of a friendly and courteous attitude toward the traveling public at the ticket window and telephone will be emphasized, the announcement stated. Faster schedules of the Erie's diesel-powered, modernly-equipped and air conditioned through trains are providing new sales features for the Erie's passenger service.

UNION OFFICIAL STRICKEN

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 26—Thomas F. Boyle, 71, veteran Springfield labor official, died of a heart ailment last night. Boyle, treasurer of local 197 of the Plumbers and Steamfitters union for more than 50 years, was enroute home on a city bus.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

I called on all my reserves of imagination and resourcefulness in dealing with my small daughter, for I knew how vital it was that she be satisfied with my description of what awaited her at the farm. If she were not given something with which her vivid imagination could play, she would exercise her baffled curiosity, and that way lay danger for the success of our "hush-hush" enterprise.

"Do you know what tableaux and plays are?" I asked.

"Sure thing," she said. "We've had tableaux at school, and you write plays, and Cousin Mary acts in them. Do you mean we're going to have tableaux at the party?"

"That's just what I mean," I told her.

"With a curtain and everything?"

"I think so," I said, wondering if I could persuade her after we reached the farmhouse that the green banking and decorations of Mr. Kennedy, the old florist, could be interpreted as a curtain.

"Oh, I see it all now," she said, clapping her small hands together. "You're going to have a pretend wedding with people dressed up as the bride and groom, and the groom is going to be dressed like Don Kee-o-ti—"

"With a windmill revolving on his right arm," her father said, but I shook my head at him.

"You mustn't mix up things," I told him severely. Then I turned back to our small daughter.

"Daddy was fuming," I told her.

"Yes, I know," she said with an air of ludicrous sophistication. "But, didn't I guess right, Mummy, about Don Kee-o-ti, didn't I?"

"Very nearly right," I told her. "We are going to have tableaux and a play wedding, and lots of other games, and dancing, and very nice things to eat, but I'm not going to tell you anything more about it until you get out to the farm."

"How many hours will that be?" she asked.

"That I cannot tell you, yet," I said. "But it will be days, not hours, so don't get too excited about it."

"How can I help not getting excited about the most scrumptious thing that ever happened to me?" she asked.

"I know, darling," I told her, "and if you don't talk to anybody about it, you may get as excited as you like, all by yourself. Now, you must get back to bed again. You don't have to go to sleep, although I think it might be a good thing. Granddad is counting on your coming in to waken him at eight o'clock, and you mustn't be too sleepy to do it properly."

'Oh, dear!" she wailed, "do I have to wake him properly, with my fingers on his wrist, the way Aunt Katharine taught me to waken sick people? I want to go in and land right in the middle of him. That's the way Granddad likes me to wake him up."

'He has a pillow over his middle all ready for you to land," I told her, smiling.

"But," she protested again, "if I should go to sleep, how would I know when it's eight o'clock? I won't dare to have an alarm clock, for he might hear it and wake up himself."

"I'll come in—" I began, but both Dicky and Katharine silenced me.

"You will not," my husband said. "You're going to hit the hay the second our young daughter kisses you good-night."

"Mummy is terribly tired, Faith," Katharine told her. "If you'll kiss her good-night now, I'll take you down and tuck you in, and I'll promise faithfully to waken you at ten minutes to eight. That will give you plenty of time to waken your granddad."

"Okay!" Faith said. "You never broke a promise yet, Aunt Katharine, so I know I can depend on you."

"There's an accolade," Harry Underwood said, and Faith snatched up the challenge.

"What's an accolade?" she demanded.

"We'll tell you tomorrow," her father said with decision. "Just now, kiss us all good-night, and then trot off to bed with Aunt Katharine."

SERVICE CLUB SIGN TO GREET VISITORS

Interclub Council To Erect Marker on Route 23.

A trial road sign, to be erected south of the Harding memorial on route 23, is planned by the Inter-Club Council, it was announced today by Cecil Gabler, chairman of the council sign committee.

The sign will bear the names of the six organizations which make up the council and each will have its identifying insignia placed beside its name. In the center of the sign will be a large inscription "Marion Welcomes You," which club members hope will express the feeling of Marion's hospitality to visitors to the city.

Organizations which make up the Inter-Club Council whose names will be listed on the welcome sign are: Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions, Exchange and Y's Men's clubs and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In order to assure the sign will be easily readable it is planned to erect it on posts setting the sign 30 inches off the ground. It will be approximately 12½ feet wide by 9 feet high.

Guests at the luncheon meeting of the council Friday were Judge Edward J. Ruzzo, A. T. Allen, Sol Freed and L. Otis Porter.

WYANDOT CLUB MEETS

The second meeting of the Wyandot Hustlers 4-H club was held Friday at Antrim school. The following officers were chosen: Tom Althouse, president; Dick Wexler vice president; Larry Iles, secretary and treasurer; Nancy McBride and Joann Jury, recreation leaders, and Donald Jury, news reporter. Harley Segler is the adviser. Harold Barrick of the Ohio Power Co. explained the procedure of an electric project being undertaken by the club. Other projects were chosen. The club name was changed to "Wyandot Indians."

CITY ACCEPTS SUPPLY BIDS

Contracts Awarded for Materials To Be Used in Coming Year.

[illegible] Uncapher, city safety-[illegible], today announced [illegible] of contracts for the [illegible] of street material and [illegible] city board of control. [illegible] the purchase of these [illegible] were submitted May 17 [illegible] award of contracts was [illegible] yesterday.

A contract for 200 sacks of Portland cement at $1 per sack at the yard or $1.05 per sack delivered was awarded to Baldauf and Schlientz, Inc. of Marion the low bidder. They were also awarded the contract for 100 sacks of quick drying cement at a price of $1.30 per sack at the plant and $1.35 per sack delivered; 50 tons of concrete sand at $2.75 per ton and 25 tons of mason sand at $2.90 per ton; 200 linear feet of vitrified sewer pipe at 23 cents a foot at the yard or 24 cents delivered; 200 linear feet of 6-inch vitrified sewer pipe at 35 cents a foot in the yard or 36 cents delivered; 200 linear feet of 8-inch vitrified sewer pipe at 55 cents a foot in the yard and 56 cents delivered; 200 linear feet of 10-inch vitrified sewer pipe at 82 cents a foot in the yard or 84 cents delivered; and 200 linear feet of 12-inch vitrified sewer pipe at $1.05 cents a foot in the yard or $1.08 cents a foot delivered.

Millard Hunt Co, of Marion, as low bidder, was awarded a contract for 50 cubic yards of transit mix concrete—Class C to be delivered at $11.75 per cubic yard; 50 cubic yards of transit mix concrete Class E to be delivered in city jobs at $11.20 per cubic yard; 100 tons of lump coal, analysis A, to be delivered at $12 per ton; 200 tons of lump coal analysis B, to be delivered at $13 per ton; and 200 tons of stoker coal analysis B, to be delivered at $13.75 per ton.

The National Lime and Stone Co. of Marion was awarded a contract for 200 tons of No. 46 crushed lime stone at $1.10 a ton, 200 tons of No. 8 crushed lime stone at $1.30 a ton, and 100 tons of No. 9 crushed lime stone at $1.30 a ton, all prices at the yard.

J. M. Hamilton and Sons Co. of Marion were awarded a contract for 200 tons of No. 34 crushed lime stone at $1.10 a ton, 200 tons of No. 7 crushed lime stone at $1 a ton, and 300 tons of ¾ inch down, crusher run lime stone, at $1.10 a ton.

The Monroe Co. Inc. of Dayton was awarded a contract for 100 gallons of yellow traffic paint at $2.95 a gallon.

Mautz Bros. of Marion were awarded a contract for 100 gallons of white traffic paint at $2.12 per gallon.

The Ohio Road Improvement Co. of Columbus was awarded a contract for 200 tons of bituminous concrete mixed at the plant to be delivered at $6.50 a ton.

The Bitucote Products Co. of Cincinnati was awarded a contract for 5,000 gallons of asphalt emulsion to be delivered to the cityyard in 2,000 gallon lots from their Delaware storage at 13½ cents a gallon.

Bids in all cases were let to the low bidder, Mr. Uncapher said, as long as the product of the bidder met state road specifications for quality which are observed by the city. In all cases where the bid of a Marion firm was the same as that of an out of town competitor the bid was awarded to the Marion firm in an effort to patronize local industry and at the same time save transportation charges and delays in delivery. In awarding all contracts the ability of the bidder to deliver the required amounts of the product at the required time was of primary consideration. If this requirement could not be met, the bid was considered accordingly, Mr. Uncapher said.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 26—The stock market continued reluctant today to move very far in either direction.

Aside from stocks affected by special situations, price changes generally were limited to narrow fractions. Pressure was almost entirely lacking as trading proceeded at leisurely pace.

A few rails and industrials recovered part of recent declines. Plus and minus signs were Southern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio (after a favorable earnings showing), Gulf Oil, International Telephone, Chrysler, Du Pont, Oliver Corp. Twentieth Century-Fox, Best Foods (which announced a special dividend), Eastman Kodak, Phelps Dodge and American Machine & Metals (on a dividend resumption).

Backward were Goodrich, Deere, Atlantic Coast line, Northern Pacific, Standard Oil (N. J.), Dow Chemical, American Smelting, Air Reduction, Commonwealth Edison, United Air Lanes, Boeing, and Zonite products (whose directors took no action on a quarterly dividend).

Crop Insurance
The General "Soilfitter" Rotary Hoe is a tool manufactured to keep the surface of the ground in a mulched condition, thereby preventing evaporation and crusting. It fingers the crop gently without damage as it is coming through the ground or has grown to a height of 12 or 15 in. It leaves no "hard pan" to choke the plant. Operated properly and within 3 to 5 days from planting date, it will kick out the little weeds "in the white." The General Soilfitter Flexible Rotary Hoe is a cheap crop insurance and increases crop yield.
It firms the ground around the plant; mulches the surface and prevents crusting; SAVES "TONS" OF MOISTURE; Cultivates wheat, oats, soy beans, alfalfa, tomotoes, corn and other crops.

CUBS COME FROM BEHIND TO DEFEAT RICHMOND 9 TO 8

Don Schmitt's Homer in 8th Gets Marion Back Into Game

By BILL DIEM

After spotting the Richmond Braves four runs in the first inning and another in the second, the Marion Cubs fought long and hard to catch up and go ahead, but they did just that in a thrilling ball game at Lincoln park last night.

Third baseman Don Schmitt saved his second home run of the season until leading off in the eighth inning, when he uncorked a blow over the left field fence that tied up the ball game at 8 and 8.

And then in the last of the ninth, Lou Castrovince doubled to open the frame, Bill Bolduc and Tom Gatts walked, and Pete Schnepf shoved the Cubs back up into the .500 mark in games won and lost with a slow grounder toward first base that scored Castrovince almost before it could be picked up.

Cubs' 11th Win

The 9-8 win was Marion's eleventh win against 11 losses, and Nick Alivojvodic's fourth against three losses.

For Alivojvodic won the game in pitching to—and striking out—two men after relieving starter Ray Peet in the top of the ninth with the score tied up, one out and a man on first and second.

The Cubs and Richmond will meet again tonight on the Lincoln park diamond with Frank Marchelli of the Cubs slated to oppose the Braves' Jim Herndon on the mound.

The Braves' four runs in the first came off an error and four hits, only one of them a clean blow, and in the second two walks, a hit and an error gave them another marker.

The Cubs pulled to within two runs of Richmond in the third when southpaw Hal Luddy threw 10 straight balls to walk Castrovince and Bolduc. Bob Shuford lashed a double to right field, scoring Castrovince, Bolduc came home on Pete Schnepf's infield out, and Schmitt plated Shuford with a cut through the pitcher's box.

But the Braves weren't willing to let the game get away from them and in the top of the fifth, Bob Brown singled and was sent home when Bill Brady lifted the ball high over the scoreboard to give the Braves a 7-3 lead.

Extend Lead

Richmond further extended its lead in the sixth on a trio of hits, but the Cubs stayed with them when doubles by Bolduc and Shuford scored another run.

It was in the seventh inning that Richmond really lost the game.

With two out and Mislovich on first by way of a single, Lou Castrovince sent an easy grounder to second baseman Bob Heavern, who whipped the ball to Bob Brown on first in plenty of time for the out, but Brown failed to tag the base and Castrovince was safe.

Bill Bolduc got his second double of the game, plating Mislovich, and Manager Zeke Bekeza elected to come in to pinch hit for Bob Shuford while a hostile crowd hooted their disapproval, Shuford being the popular hero of the moment.

Zeke, benched for some three weeks with a broken hand bone, drove a third strike ball to shortstop Bob Brown, who let the ball get by him for an error, and Castrovince and Bolduc scored. The crowd ceased hooting, somewhat

Frankie Murdock, formerly "The Batman," will tangle with rough, tough Jack Terry of England in the second half of the main go. Jack won the battle royal last week. Karlton Luke and Sam Taylor will paperweight through a 10-minute preliminary.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — Ike Williams, 135, Trenton, N. J., outpointed Enrique Bolanos, 134, Mexico City, 15 (title).

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. — Red Grant, 126½, Toledo, knocked out Chuck McGow, 124, Indianapolis, 3.

WILLIAMS RETAINS LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE

Wins Split Decision Over Challenger Bolanos.

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, May 26—The Ike Williams camp was happy and the following of Enrique Bolanos were unhappy—and irate.

That was the aftermath picture of last night's blistering 15-round lightweight championship fight before a record crowd in which Williams, the champion, retained his title by a split decision over Bolanos, the challenger from Mexico.

Referee Charley Randolph gave his vote to Bolanos, but the two judges, Johnny Indrisano and Frankie Van, voted for the lithe Negro lad from Trenton, N. J.

A crowd estimated at 28,000, which paid a gross gate of $152,000 witnessed the scrap. The gate receipts broke Los Angeles' old outdoor record of $128,635 set in 1929 by Mickey Walker and Ace Hudkins.

The fight was action-packed from start to finish. Williams stalked in flatfooted, forever trying to land his well-known knockout wallop, and Bolanos, a shifty, jobbing left hook artist, moved in and out never letting the champ get set.

Aside from Williams' big round in the tenth, when Bolanos ran smack into a right hand he fell victim to punishing glove blows to the head, no round was decided by more than one point.

There were no knockouts, but both fighters finished the match dripping blood — Williams from the mouth, Bolanos from the nose and from a nasty cut over the left eye he received in the 14th stanza.

As expected, Ike packed the heavier wallop.

Williams weighed 135 and Bolanos 134.

Converted Outfielder Wins for Louisville

By The Associated Press

Louisville, which hit bottom in the American Association recently for the first time in 10 years, is trying everything to pull out of the slump—even an outfielder converted to a pitcher.

The latest maneuver proved successful. Ellis Deal, 25-year-old converted outfielder with a buggy-whip arm, scattered six hits Tuesday night to lead Louisville over first place St. Paul 5-0.

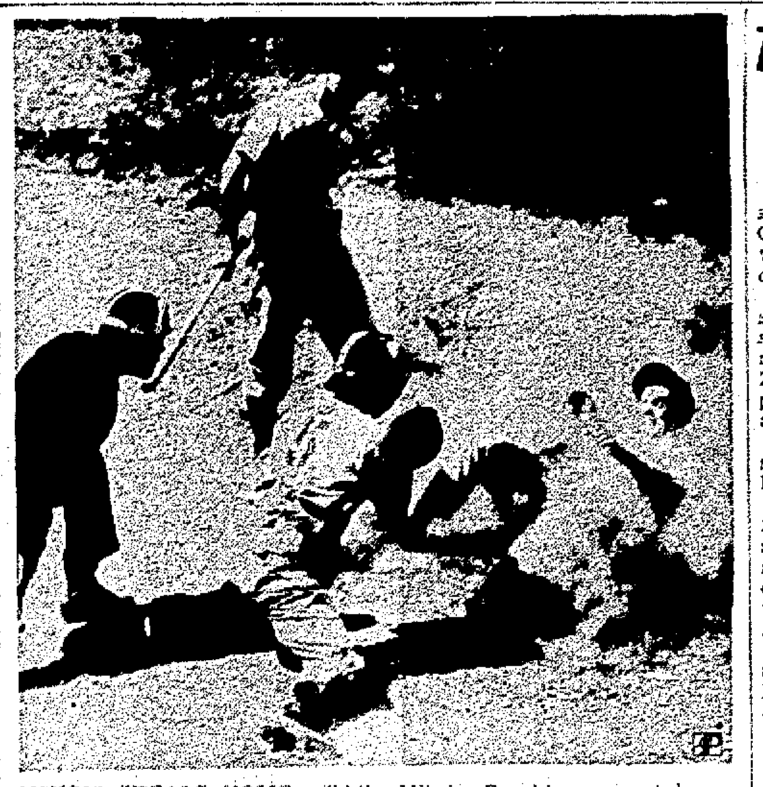
St. Paul still held the lead by a thread—.641 percentage to Indianapolis' .634. The Tribe gained ground by blasting Milwaukee 8-5 with every man in the lineup getting at least one hit in a 14-blow attack.

Columbus stayed 1½ games out of the lead by losing 13-10 to Kansas City in an 11-inning contest. The defeat snapped the Red Birds' nine-game winning streak. The Blues socked Clarence Beers, fifth of five Columbus hurlers, for three runs in the top of the 11th. Columbus overcame a seven-run deficit with three runs in the fifth and seven in the sixth.

Toledo salvaged a 5-2 decision over Minneapolis on Walter Brown's ninth inning relief pitching. He rescued Chet Johnson with none out and runners on second and third, retiring the next three batters in order.

NEW YORKER TO SPEAK

BUCYRUS — Commencement exercises will be held Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock, when Cameron Beck of New York City will address the 100 graduates of Bucyrus High school.



MIKSIS STEALS HOME. Eddie Miksis, Brooklyn second baseman, steals home in fourth inning of Dodger-Cincinnati game in New York (May 24), beating throw from pitcher Bud Lively to catcher Ray Lamanno. Peewee Reese waits to bat as umpire Al Barlick calls play. Miksis stole home after clearing bases with a double in six-run inning which gave Dodgers 9 to 4 victory over Reds and ended eight-game losing streak. (AP Wirephoto)

Sandusky Men To Give Semi-Pro Football Another Whirl in Fall

By The United Press

SANDUSKY, O., May 26—The play-for-fun semi-pro football ranks here will give the sport a whirl again this fall. Contracts are now being signed with the only promised emolument the sheer fun of the game.

In this day and age when money talks in sports, the Sandusky Maroons semi-pro team is readying a squad to reintroduce the game in this northern Ohio community after a lapse of 16 years.

The team is incorporated and has some slight financial support from local business houses.

"The fellows are playing primarily because they like to play football and will not be paid," business manager Victor H. Weis said. "However, if the club makes a profit after all expenses have been paid, the players will share alike in the net profits."

The corporation will take out insurance on its players to protect them in case of injury. Injury and resultant loss of income on the regular job has long plagued semi-pro squads.

The coaching staff comes from the ranks of men who at one time played high school football here. The staff is composed of Howard Ziemke and Glenn Rehfuss who played their collegiate football at Mt. Union and Westminster (Pa.) colleges, respectively.

"We have at present, 50 men working out twice a week in preparation for the coming season and I am certain we will present a first class, well-conditioned team when the season opens," Weis said.

So far the Maroons do not plan to enter a league this year, although they have been approached regarding such a venture, Weis said. Games already booked for the fall season include those with Massillon, Dayton and Marion semi-pro squads, all games to be played at Sandusky.

Double Main Event Thursday

Marion wrestling fans will have a double main event plus a new referee for their weekly mat show at the Armory Thursday night. The one 90-minute bout returns Gene Blakely and Bill Murray who wrestled a hot draw in last week's battle royal and the fans will welcome them back over the longer route.

The other main event brings together Frankie Murdock, the former "Bat Man" and the rough Englishman Jack Terry. Both these matches are the best two out of three falls.

The 10-minute prelim at 8:30 p. m. is Karlton Luke and Sam Taylor.

ZANESVILLE DIDGERS BURNING UP CIRCUIT

By The Associated Press

Zanesville's Dodgers, off to a slow start in defense of their Ohio-Indiana baseball league title, were burning up the circuit today.

Manager Ray Hathaway's crew scored its seventh win in eight starts last night, beating Portsmouth, 8-5. The victory enabled Zanesville to move into a third place tie with the A's, each with a 13-10 record.

League-leading Muncie and second-place Springfield also won last night.

Muncie, scoring six runs in the first half of the first, defeated sixth-place Lima 10-6. Bob Nieman's second-inning homer with one man aboard provided the winning margin. Lima committed five errors.

Springfield also capitalized on a big inning to defeat last-place Newark, 11-3. Springfield scored eight runs in the second inning on seven hits and three Newark errors.

Zanesville clinched victory over Portsmouth with a five-run fifth inning featured by Walt Lindsay's triple. The Dodgers' starter, Irvin Renollett, was in trouble only in the sixth, when he allowed four hits and four runs. He gave up only four other hits.

McCUTCHENVILLE TO PLAY IN STATE FINALS

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, May 26—The high school baseball team from McCutchenville, near here, will compete in the annual state tourney Friday and Saturday, at Ohio State university, Columbus.

The "Big Red" team from Wyandot county defeated Wakeman, from Huron County, 9 to 4, in the recent finals of the northwest regional tournament at Bowling Green.

Louis Dutton Aces On Mar-O-Del Course

Second hole-in-one of the season and the third ever to be made on the Mar-O-Del golf course was shot by Louis Dutton of 441 West Columbia street Sunday. He accompanied the difficult feat on the 164-yard No. 2 hole with a No. 5 iron.

His father, Clarence Dutton, making the rounds with him said the shot appeared to fall short—into the sand trap in front of the green. He blanched white and then red and almost fainted in his excitement at finding the ball in the cup, his father said. He shot 9 holes in 40, three under par.

The other ace this year was made on the same hole by Ed Popoezy of Delaware in April.

3 WINNERS REPEAT IN COMMERCIAL

Commercial league softball games last night saw three of the eight teams in the league notch second wins, three absorb second defeats, and a couple settle for one and one records.

The Eagles posted a 14-9 score over Post 162 in winning their first. Company C made it two in a row by hammering out 15 hits in dropping the Jaycees 11-1, W and W captured their second with a 11-5 victory over Farm Bureau, and Shanty Town edged M M P, 9-6, for their second win and the Metal boy's first reverse

American Legion fashioned 13 hits to eight for the Eagles but failed to connect in the right spots

Company C had little trouble with the Jaycees in winning by a 10-run margin, taking a three-run lead in the top of the first and adding to it in each succeeding round except the fifth

Five to one in the fourth was as close as Farm Bureau could get to W and W as the Provers on men counted 12 hits while permitting only four

Shanty Town came from behind in the third to take a 5-4 edge over Marion Metal but Metal tied it in their half at five all before succumbing to a four run rally by the Shanty Towners in the fourth.

Ben Hogan Defeats Mike Turnesa To Win Second PGA Championship

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS. May 26—Stone-faced Ben Hogan, the giant little pressure player from Hershey, Pa., can thank a fine iron game for his second Professional Golfers Association championship and a $3,500 boost to the family bankroll.

Hogan beat veteran Mike Turnesa of White Plains, N. Y., 7 and 6, yesterday in the finals of the thirtieth PGA tournament, mainly because he was complete master of his wedge and eight iron

The prize money vaulted Hogan's tournament earnings for this year to $13,879.50 for 49 rounds of play, second only in dollars and cents to Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, who has picked up $14,764 99 in 10 more rounds.

Turnesa, one of three brothers who have lost in the finals of PGA tournaments, simply didn't have the strokes to match the sub-par shooting of the Texas-born Hogan.

With conceded putts, Ben traveled the seven days of golfing over the short and hilly 6,467-yard Norwood Hills Country club course in 36 under par for the 213 holes. That included two rounds of qualifying play

Turnesa often outdrove Hogan but performed feebly on many of the greens, although he is regarded as one of the better putters of the game Three-putt jobs on two greens had a crippling effect on the popular New Yorker

BEN HOGAN
The Winner

Hogan trailed only once during the day—on the second hole Turnesa sneaked a 20-footer into the cup Ben evened the match at the fourth went ahead on the fifth and from that point never looked back He was 1-up at the turn of the nine, 4-up from eighteen, and 4-up after the twenty-seventh.

Hogan was nine strokes under par yesterday when the match ended He completed the morning round in 32-33—65 six strokes under regulation figures Hogan went out in 34 in the afternoon, one under, and closed the match with birdies on the 29th and 30th holes

Turnesa went the distance in 33-37—70 in the morning and was out in 34 after lunch

2 INFIELDERS HURT BUT INDIANS WIN

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 26—Injuries to Ken Keltner and Joe Gordon sidelined one-half of the Cleveland Indians' classy infield today, but the Tribe remained in first place—thanks to the brilliant hurling of Bob Lemon.

Keltner, home run hitting leader of the major leagues with 13 circuit clouts, received a bruised right arm when hit by a wild throw last night in the Tribe's 4-0 shutout of the Washington Nationals.

The Indians' brain trust heaved a sigh of relief, however, and Keltner said 'I feel like a new man,' when X-rays showed Ken's arm suffered only a bruise

Some of the Tribe's home run punch may be lost for several days with the sidelining of Keltner and Joe Gordon hard-hitting second sacker who is inactive because of an ailing back Allie Clark and Johnny Berardino, who replaced the injured duo last night, are expected to continue at the vital infield posts

The good news was furnished for 23,417 stadium fans by Lemon last night The converted infield-outfielder hurled one of his most spectacular games as he struck out 11 and blanked the Nats for the second straight time on four hits

Lemon continued his powerful stick work starting Cleveland's two-run spree in the third with a double and driving in another run in the fourth with a single

Thurman Tucker was hit by a pitched ball and Clark beat out an infield hit to fill the bases in the third and set the stage for Manager Lou Boudreau's two-run single

Singles by Berardino, Keltner Lemon and rookie catcher Joe Tipton gave the Indians another pair of runs in the fourth, but Keltner was lost in the scoring spree Ken was hit by third baseman Eddie Yost's throw when he scrambled back to first

Lemon's victory gave him a record of five wins in seven starts

Gene Bearden Cleveland southpaw sensation who has hurled three successive victories, will try for his fourth straight win tonight against Washington's Sid Hudson

Reds Pick Up Howie Schultz

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, May 26—The Cincinnati Reds are going to waste no time in making use of Howie Schultz, six-foot seven-inch first sacker, obtained on waivers from the Philadelphia Phillies.

Redleg Manager Johnny Neun said today he would start the big fellow when the team returns to Crosley Field for a night game with the Chicago Cubs Friday

The Rhinelanders, whose game last night with the Braves was postponed because of rain and fog, announced that third string catcher Hugh Poland would be disposed of to make room for Schultz on the Redleg roster It was not decided immediately what disposition would be made of Poland.

Neun expressed dissatisfaction with the showing of Babe Young his regular first baseman, and said Schultz and Ted Kluszewski would take over most of the duties at the initial sack Schultz a right-hander, will be used against left handers, with lefty Kluszewski taking over against the orthodox sluggers

The Red skipper said he was "tired of watching Young pop up or bounce out when the chips are down and wave at ground balls past first base" Young had helped the Reds finish in fifth place last season but he failed to show form this year

The Reds are scheduled to play the last game of their current road trip here tonight and Neun said he would start Herman Wehmeier, freshman right-hander Warren Spahn Boston's ace southpaw will oppose him

Dodgers Deny Jackie On Waiver List

By International News Service

NEW YORK, May 26—The Brooklyn Dodgers denied today a published report that Jackie Robinson, Negro infielder had been placed on the waiver list.

The New York Daily Mirror said last night that Robinson, named last winter as the National league's Rookie of the Year, had been placed on the waiver block by the Dodgers because he hasn't rounded into his best playing condition.

International Turf Contest Planned

By The Associated Press

LONDON—The two-mile King George VI stakes at Ascot Oct. 9 will be a real international turf contest.

The 94 entries come from five nations.

Black Tarquin and The Senator II, from the English stable of William Woodward of New York, will represent America.

There are 27 entries from France, two from Ireland and two from Italy. The rest are English horses.

It is one of the richest races during the flat season, paying 5,000 pounds ($20,000) added money in addition to the stakes. With the original entry fee of 25 pounds ($100) the stakes money is already 2,250 pounds. Horses left in during subsequent stages will pay another 75 pounds.

DE LUCA HOPING FOR JOB WITH RICHMOND

Pitcher Frank DeLuca, who was released from the Marion Cubs Saturday, is trying to get a job with the Richmond Braves.

Brave Manager Ollie Byers said yesterday DeLuca may be given a tryout at Richmond, but won't be taken on while the Braves are on the road.

DeLuca was charged with one loss and no wins while with the locals.

SHANTY TOWN GIRLS DOWN DELAWARE, 8-6

Shanty Town Girls' softball team defeated Delaware Merchants 8-6, on Delaware diamond Monday. Marion took an early lead which held until the fifth when the Delaware gals tied the count at six all.

Shanty Town then went ahead when Anna Sue broke up the ball game with a homer with one on. The Shanty Towners will meet Smitty's Maids tonight at 7:30 at Crystal Lake park. Smitty's Boys will play Marysville in the second half of a twin bill.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

QUEEN MARY, born May 26, 1867, is a granddaughter of King George III. Her parents were not rich. She was engaged to Prince Edward who died of influenza before marriage. Later she married Prince George who became king. That marriage lasted 42 years until the death of the king. Two of her sons, Edward and George, became kings of England.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Wallace may fly for a conference with Stalin . . . Joe gets lonesome if he doesn't see a presidential candidate once in a while.

* * *

Stassen made the last pilgrimage and was courteously received . . . in fact better than he was in Oregon.

* * *

But the feeling is that if a president or candidate would just sit down with Joe everything would come out perfect . . . As at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam.

* * *

There was a tremendous spirit of give and take at those conferences . . . Of course it was a few years before we knew how much we had given and been taken for.

* * *

But it would be a good idea for the third party candidate to visit Moscow . . . And it would be nice if Moscow had a second party candidate to send here.
